

Our all-inclusive pricing makes it easy for you and always includes our full-service commitment. After a design consultation, a custom quote is put together on an individual basis and therefore differs for each and every client. On average, our custom designed save the dates start at $350 and our invitation suites start at $1,100 - each are quoted according to the selected invitation style, printing type, number of pieces, quantity and design. mlc designs is a full-service design studio and therefore all of our work includes the guest addressing, envelope printing, stuffing, stamping + mailing of your invitations to your guests. We can certainly discuss ways that we can work together where budget may be a concern, and we can always help keep you on budget during a design consultation so that you make the appropriate selections.