THE WOODLANDS

AT COTTONWOOD CANYON

Welcome to the woods. . .

a space that whispers of beautiful beginings,
with leaves bathed in soft filtered light
Your joy filled moments, waiting to be soaked in.

Hello!

Thank you for recognizing the magical quality of The Woodlands as you seek out the place to host your forever day. Choosing a venue is about finding just the right backdrop, vibe, flow, and ease you want for your day. It's the foundation for all the elements to come and when you are working with the right people and space, it will positively affect every other part of your wedding planning process! With a lush outdoor meadow and beautiful, indoor ceremony or reception space, we can offer flexibility so you get exactly what you need and the freedom to evolve how you want throughout the planning process. This is an unfolding after all. An unfolding of your ideas, your plans, of your wedding day and of you as a couple.

Tables & chairs & ceremony benches are always included and we have linens in a huge variety of colors and fabrics to give you the look you envision. Catering menus are available in house to keep it easy and delicious or we allow the freedom of bringing your own vendors in. Bring in your own alcohol with no high markup's or corking fees or choose a bar to handle it all for you.

Start the day in your own ultimate getting ready areas. Bring your bridal entourage in the airy spaciousness of the loft, an expansive suite with a full kitchen, full bath, and fireplace. It is stocked with:

- Loads of mirrors, a steamer, generous hanging spaces and natural light.
- The balcony is excellent for photos or a bouquet toss.
- A calm getaway you will want from the activity below.
- Start with a relaxing massage or sit down to lunch the day of your event.

It even doubles as a great crash pad with TV, toys or portable crib for tired kids later in the evening. The guys have all the chill space they need with pool table, darts, mini fridge & TV.

When you arrive to the space already set up, you can enjoy the day all the more. Walk down the aisle to say 'I Do' with the birds as your natural soundtrack and celebrate surrounded by Montana's towering trees and filtered light, which will transition to bright stars and twinkle lights as the evening sets. Take your personal items and walk away to wrap up your day in our honeymoon suite cabin.

In the pages below, we will share the different ways we can create the day of ease and joy you deserve and all the things included that makes the planning a breeze.

But beyond all those fabulous details, is always the secluded, natural space that is steeped in fresh mountain air and all the things that bring us to our best selves. Deeper breaths and earth to keep you grounded in the each glorious moment. This is our wish for you.

Lisa
