Congratulations on your engagement!!

I'm Jessica! I dreamt of building a business that would not only create timeless images for my clients, but also a business that values itself on making people feel loved & cared for. You don't just get a photographer with me, I want to help you make this process stress free and enjoy the wedding planning. I strive to create lasting friendships with my clients that allow for your true authentic self to come through! That's where the magic is!
