Meet Our Vendors

Stonehaven wedding packages provide you with a smooth, stress-free day. Our vendors have been carefully selected to provide value, integrity and service on a consistent basis. They understand how weddings and receptions flow and work hard to make it happen. They are what makes our packages so special.

AspenPointe Catering: As a non-profit organization, AspenPointe is well-known for their community service. What makes their catering is special is the care they give to the preparation of great food. They top that off with first class service, coordinating of the buffet table with your colors, busing of your tables, and cutting your cake.

Icing on the Cake: Mischa is hooked on creating amazing art...in buttercream and fondant! While living in Northern Minnesota, she worked with a well-known bakery for 3 years. After Mischa moved back to Colorful Colorado in 2014, she began working with a local cake store. It has always been a dream of hers to own her own restaurant or bakery. So, in the summer of 2016...Icing on the Cake was born. Mischa is excited for you to stop in a say hi and taste some of our delicious treats!

Warren Entertainment: John has 25+ years in the industry. He enjoys working with clients to offer exceptional services at affordable prices. He is a great M.C. (Master of Ceremonies) of your reception with a vast knowledge of music with a proven track record of reliability, affordability and thousands of happy clients. He runs an honest, ethical company that uses legal, licensed music.

Reflections Photography: Conrad and Roxana have photographed over 2000 weddings during their career. They bring experience, creative and organization to you wedding photos. They know the special nooks and crannies around Stonehaven to show the love you have for each other is ways you will always cherish.

Elegant Additions: Leslie provides a special touch that add elegance and beauty to your wedding. From chair covers and sashes to draping and lighting, she truly adds elegance to your special day.
