

A Note to the Bride

I am truly excited to say... congratulations on your engagement! I have been honored to photograph over 100 weddings and it is such a joy for me to enter into this season of your life!

I love the details. I love the energy and anticipation. I love the candid moments that tell the story of your relationship, your families and your beautiful day that you've carefully planned for. I love getting to know your loved ones and I am grateful for the opportunity to spend the day those who will surround you as you get ready, walk down the aisle and dance the night away.

But most of all? I love being there to create a lasting heirloom for you to cherish for generations. I believe in celebrating love that lasts!! I would love to connect with you to hear about everything you're desiring for your dream wedding, and hopefully be the one to photograph this amazing, monumental, once-in-a-lifetime day!

Celebrating love and laughter that lasts,
Sarah D'Attoma

Questions

How will I receive my images after the wedding day?

All images are uploaded into an online gallery and you will be given an instant download pin! The site also backs up your images for up to two years!

Do you have a contract?

Yes, I do, but this exists to protect both of us! You're agreeing to the price listed for your wedding collection, and I'm agreeing to provide everything I've promised you!

How many weddings have you photographed? Well over 100!!

Will you provide a second shooter? I bring an assistant to every wedding, but a second shooter is included in the Platinum Collection so that you'll also have lots of additional images in your final gallery.

How long will it be until I see my wedding images?

I always post a quick 5-10 image preview within 48 hours of the wedding day. After that, I will curate a blog post within two weeks so you can already begin to relive your wedding day! Finally, your full gallery will be received 6-8 weeks of your wedding!

I'm planning a wedding where you will have to travel. Are there additional fees? This is a complicated answer based on location and which collection you choose. Please inquire for more details.

Can I add more time to my wedding timeline if I need to?

Absolutely! That can be decided in advance, or on the day of! If you decide that you're not ready for us to stop shooting when the timeline states, simply ask me to stay a little bit longer and then we will take care of the payment for that additional time afterwards. No big deal!!

Questions

What if it rains on my wedding day?

It happens! I have enough experience to help you come with a plan should the weather be less than ideal! I always keep an eye on the weather leading up to the wedding day, and should we know in advance that the forecast calls for rain, we can begin to come up with some options.

What is a First Look?

Have you thought about that moment where you walk down the aisle and seeing your fiance's face light up? A first look is planning a time to do that privately, one on one, before the ceremony. The purpose for this is to have a time where you can react and respond to one another! When you walk down the aisle, your fiance doesn't get to stop and tell you how amazing you look, or spin you around and kiss you on your cheek! You get an opportunity to exchange a gift or a letter, talk or pray with one another, get some gorgeous candid images, AND get out the jitters before you walk down the aisle!

How much time will we need to plan portraits between the ceremony and reception? I ask each couple to plan one hour for portraits. We need approximately 15-20 minutes for family, 15-20 minutes for bridal party, and 15-20 minutes for bride and groom portraits. If you're able to plan a little additional time, I'll be so excited, but I can do my part in an hour.

I've decided I want D'Attoma Studios to shoot my wedding!! How do I book?

A non-refundable deposit of 10% of whichever wedding collection you choose is due at booking. The remaining balance is due 8 weeks before the wedding, but adjustments can be made if necessary to accommodate any specific needs you may have! If you'd like to set up a consultation to meet and pay the deposit in person, fantastic! Let's have coffee together soon! If you're ready to go and would like to book online, I'll send you an invoice for the save the date deposit and you'll be all set!!
