

A beautiful backdrop for your entire wedding day

The church wedding of your dreams and a fantastic celebration with family and friends, all in one beautiful, historic building!

Welcome to Events on 6th! This beautiful Tacoma wedding and reception venue is the perfect place for your entire wedding day. With a stunning, vaulted-ceiling chapel for your ceremony, and a fun, party-ready reception hall for your celebration, you and your guests have plenty of space to mingle, take photos, and party!

Enjoy cocktails and conversation in the stylish mid-century modern lounge and dance under the stars in the outdoor garden courtyard. Get ready in the relaxing and romantic dressing rooms, take photos by the fantastic architecture, and know your whole day will be full of beauty and fun.

Built in 1924 and renovated in 2010, Events on 6th was crafted with you in mind. Stay simple and use the beauty of the building as your decoration, or transform the space to fit your personal style. Events on 6th is a beautiful backdrop for your wedding day celebration and will provide wonderful memories for the rest of your lives.

Events on 6th is close to lovely outdoor photo opportunities at Wright Park, Point Defiance Park and the Ruston Way waterfront. Enjoy the security of an indoor wedding while still capturing those beautiful outdoor photos!

Celebrate your big day in elegance and style, and find contentment knowing you and your guests can relax and enjoy your whole wedding day in one beautiful location.

We have many vendors to recommend on our website, but you may use whomever you would like, on or off-list, no other charge.

Our building is wonderful; you'll love the wide-open layout!

- Historic vaulted-ceiling chapel with balcony, seats 180
- Midcentury-style lounge with leather couches and gas fireplace--great for a social hour!
- Romantic & relaxing dressing rooms, plus a sitting room
- Reception hall with exposed-beam ceiling, strung party lights, and formal seating capacity of 180, tables and chairs and set-up/teardown included for 160
- Buffet/serving room & catering kitchen
- Centrally-located garden courtyard; great natural light!
- Parking lot in rear of building, additional side-street parking, possible additional parking rental

The rental time encompasses the time needed for vendor drop-offs, time to decorate, have your event, remove all decorations/items, and complete exit of guests. Taking down decorations and bringing presents to the cars and bringing out trash/recycling usually takes about 1 hour. 7am is earliest start time, midnight is the latest end time.

No nails, tacks, or tape. No live petals on the aisle carpet. Organ must be protected. No open flame. All trash and decorations must be removed (partial dumpster availability). Brooms, vacuum and trash bags will be available. Recycling is encouraged. A building manager will be on site for building-related issues. We do not have linens, dishes, silverware, decorations, sound system, freezer, or ice maker.

Date purchase requires $1500 down and a signed contract. Every event requires a $500 refundable damage deposit.

Also needed:

Proof of Event Insurance, and if you are serving alcohol a Banquet Permit. Your bartender must be licensed and insured, and must serve all alcohol.

This beautiful building will likely be here for your 50th anniversary; why not choose a venue that has been used for weddings for over 90 years and is looking ahead to the next 90?

I'd love for Events on 6th to be the backdrop for all your wedding day memories. I strive to be a gracious and helpful hostess to you and your guests! Relax and enjoy the entire experience of getting married!
