The proposal. The vows. The memories. What's Your Story?

In the time consuming wedding planning process, it's easy to be overwhelmed with the trappings of a wedding and lose track of the essence of the moment. Weddings are about interaction, sharing time together, and the intimacy of a new relationship. An ideal photojournalistic event, weddings are laden with all of the elements of compelling photographs: beauty, spontaneity, emotion and most of all, love. Capturing those memories tells a story, your story. Ultimately, the measurement of your special day isn't about the luxury of the setting or the culinary achievement of the chef, but to the precious memories that are captured and preserved.

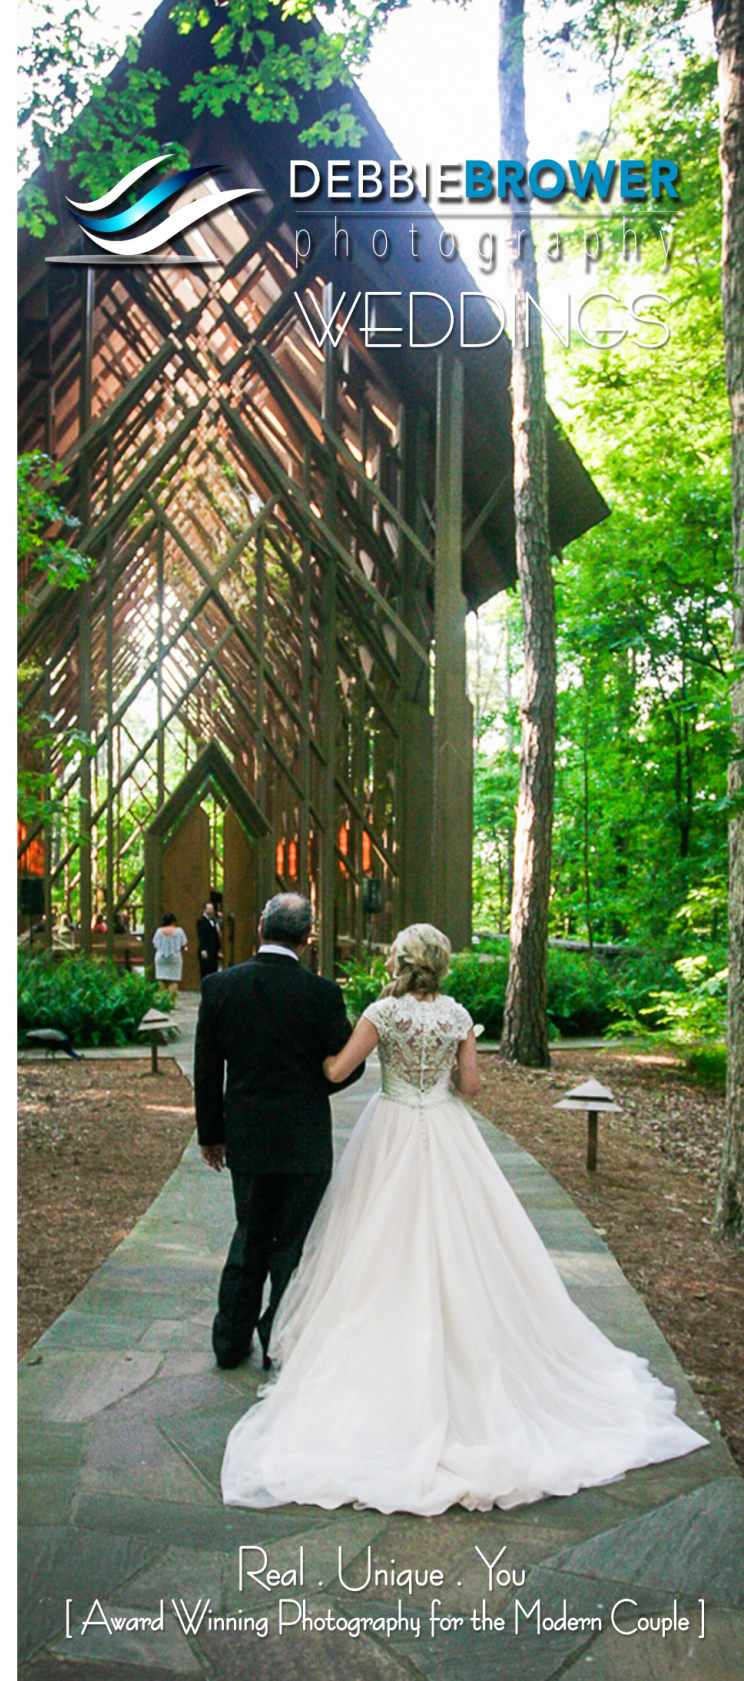

Let us help tell your story.

WHERE IS YOUR STUDIO?

It is your home, your location, your choice. We are on-location photographers. We prefer natural light and feel it is the most flattering light for portraits. Because we work in the elements, sessions may be rescheduled due to inclement weather.

WHEN DO I NEED TO SCHEDULE MY SESSION?

- Weddings: Brides book as early as one year in advance. We only book a limited number of weddings per year, so make sure your date gets saved by calling early!
- Engagement & Bridal Session: As soon as you book your wedding, you can get your sessions on our calendar.

WHAT DO I WEAR TO MY SESSIONS

For engagement sessions, matching is completely up to you, but keep it simple when having multiple people in your photos. Knit fabric that do not show wrinkles well are preferred. Gals -- A little extra make-up on the eyes & lips... AND, don't forget your bling! We use the ring for certain shots. Guys -- Make sure your socks match (they do show!)

For bride's, FIRST, your dress is pretty important... Next, if you would like your veil in some images, make sure you do not have your stylist "install" it with your do. We will put it on during the session. ALSO, flowers... Be sure to have a bouquet if you would like one in your images. The bridal sessions are a great time for a trial run with hair, make-up & flowers, but be sure you are completely pleased with these things before your shoot.

Add on's are available and include:

Additional portrait sessions (bridal portraits, bride & groom portraits, boudoir photography, day after session, engagement session, and/or rehearsal dinner).

Albums & Coffee Table Books

Additional products — canvas art prints, prints, save the dates, metal prints, photo favor cards, and more.

Additional photographers and/or additional hours to wedding day coverage when you select an hourly package instead of full day coverage
