Meet Jackie Having been a bride herself, Jackie knows the importance of having the least amount of stress as humanly possible on your big day. Going to a salon on your wedding day, or waiting on your stylist to finish at the salon before coming to you, can add unwanted anxiety on the most important day of your life. Fully dedicating herself to her clients, wherever they may be, allows Jackie to bring the high-end salon experience to her brides.

Jackie has always worked in high-end salons. After training under the world's top stylists at Warren-Tricomi Salon in the Plaza Hotel in Manhattan, Jackie joined Red Door Spa and later Salon Bleu in Tysons Galleria. Her clients include DC's elite, royalty, celebrities, and her beautiful brides. Jackie has also been the preferred Bridal Hair Specialist for the renowned Willard Hotel in DC.
