memories are everything

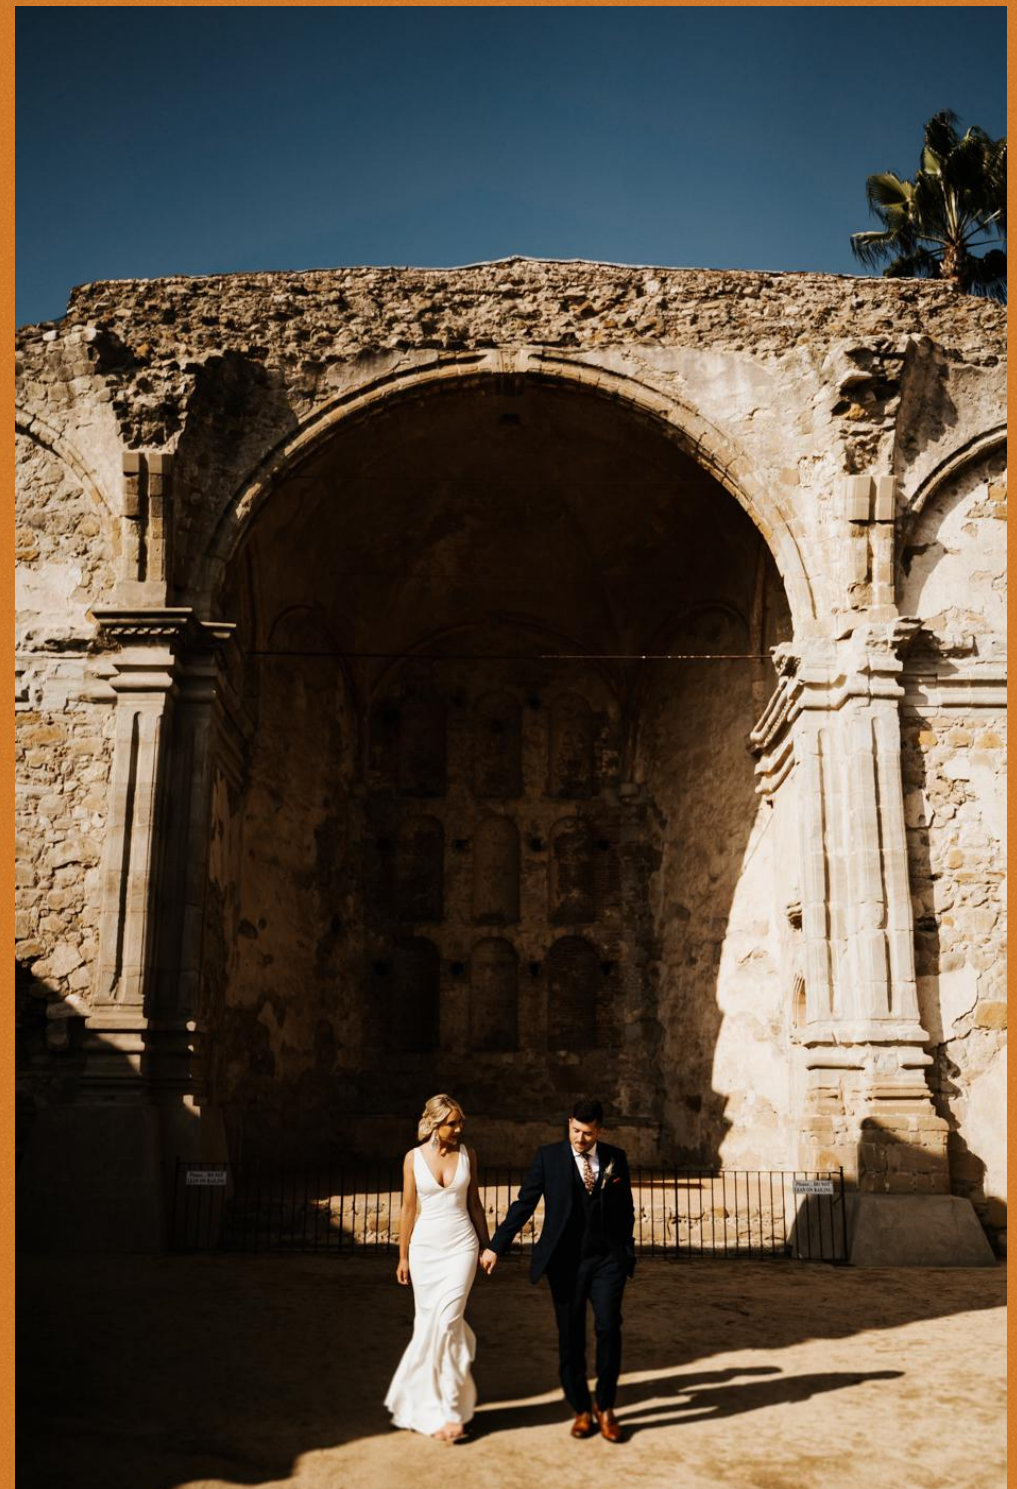

FIRST AND FOREMOST!!!

a huge congratulations! you both have such an incredible journey ahead of yourselves and i am SUPER excited for you! secondly, i am beyond grateful we've made it thus far. it means you must have seen something within my images that really speaks to you. in fact, you might be thinking you can even see yourselves in some of these snaps. for that i am extremely humbled, and so a sincere thank you! its such an honor to be trusted to document anyones fierce love story in a beautiful fashion. it is so much fun to be that person behind the camera watching all the fun moments take place. HOWEVER, before any of this can happen, we have to be a good fit. this is where your like, wait a minute, what the heck does that mean? well, i'll tell ya what that means!

it means your going to have to be ok with me capturing everything that makes your story real. all the messy moments, all the pretty moments, the not so perfect stuff, yet all THE perfect stuff. your hair beautifully being set by a top hair stylist, or being messy from the wind on a cliff. capturing someone important to you making a final adjustment to that dapper tie, a loving person lacing up the back of your amazing dress.tears running down your cheeks while reading your vows, someone making out on the dance floor cause they had a little too much to drink, having to go through a drive through late night because everyone is ravenous after dancing their asses off. sobbing out of control during that last dance of the night because it just hit ya, your dream came true, you finally married the person you were meant for, the person thats there for you no matter what, ill be there to document the big moments, the small moments and everything in between.

Oh yes, i get all involved. on the floor, in a tree in your face, high, low, near and far. i capture everything thats makes you, and all with the biggest grin cheek to cheek because i'm your #1 fan, your BFF, your third wheel, and simply just someone that has your back through thick and thin. i want you to have the best experience with me and in the end receive incredible photos that will last the generations ahead. anything you should need i would jump to help. so if your cool with all this and think, oh HECK yes, we ARE a good fit. well then my newest friends...

night before the big day

this is awesome because its a chance for me to get to know all your VIP's. also everyone gets used to the stranger with the camera getting all close and personal capturing their laughs in between the silly moments. with so many fun activities planned the night before like BBQ's, hikes, surfing, drinking games, bonfires, yoga etc. its nice to have it all documented. its also rad taking time with the two of you for a quick session maybe during golden hour. you would love this because you'll have photos with all the people you probably have not seen in the longest time and probably wont see again for years to come. Remember your wedding is a total adventure so why not preserve all your memories with everyone you love and adore so much!

day after tagalong

this is where we either get you all dolled up in your wedding attire again, or keep things simple in casual attire to explore the surroundings during the afternoon. we'll find some epic spots with magical light or go to a fun little town and explore cafe's, shopping or other fun things to do.

second shooter

i typically shoot all by myself like a lone wolf haha. i actually really enjoy it because i can totally get lost in your love story without micro-managing someone else. however sometimes ill have to call in the pack for help. during our initial meeting we can figure out if this is something that would be needed but in most cases we won't, and no worries, i'll explain how.

additional hours

i have found that my packages usually hit the sweet spot when it comes to coverage time. but sometimes we might need a little more time. all good, i've got you covered. the more time i spend with you and your crazy bunch, the more timeless photos you'll get, and thats what its all about!

luxury albums

ok lets be real here, are you really going to make a wedding album? lets say you have some friends over who weren't able to make it over to your wedding. they're dying to see your photos but they are on your hard drive, deep in the attic or storage. are you really going to go find it, log into your computer, find your charger because your laptop is almost out of juice, open your images one by one and show them on a screen? i don't think so. this is where you'll be thanking me over and over again. you simply bust out this gem and show them something amazing and tangible. these albums are truly priceless. they bring out the life in each image. it showcases your love story in such a beautiful way. i have to say, every time i want to reminisce on my own wedding day, its so nice to snuggle up with the wifey, grab a glass of wine and slowly flip through the spreads and shed some tears of joy. i want YOU to experience this. we'll chat more in detail about how this is truly the best way to preserve your memories for the generations ahead.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW MANY PHOTOS DO I GET?

typically for weddings i deliver anywhere between 400 and 700 images. for elopement adventures its about 200 and 400. couples sessions are around 100 images.

HOW DO PAYMENTS WORK?

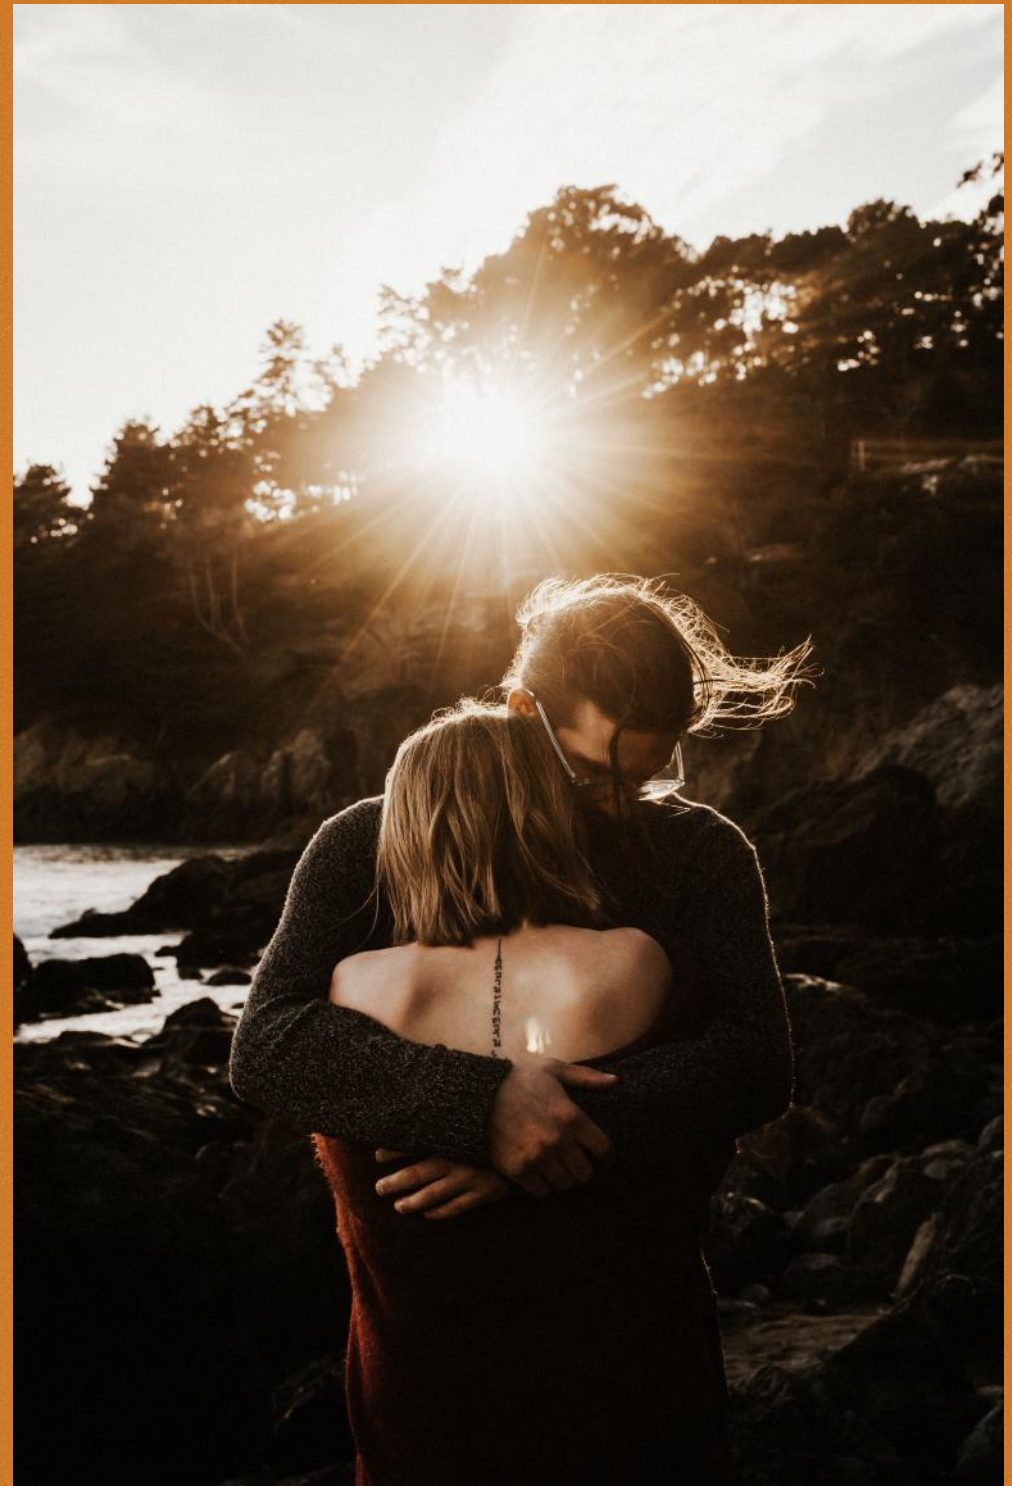

i require a 50% retainer to hold your date with me. the remaining balance will be due ten days prior to your wedding. for couples portraits, the retainer is $200 and remaining balance will be due 10 days prior to our day together.

WHAT IF WE NEED TO CANCEL OR RESCHEDULE?

if you already put a deposit down on a wedding or elopement date and then have to cancel or reschedule, the deposit would be non-refundable. a new deposit would be due to hold your new date. if its for a couples session i would be happy to find a new date that works for us at no extra charge. pretty rare in this industry.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU CANT MAKE IT TO OUR WEDDING?

good heavens i hope this never happens, but just in case something crazy happens out of my control, i will do my very best to find a proper replacement with someone i completely trust and shoots just like me. if for some reason i cannot find someone to replace me, you will be refunded all moneys paid.

something
memorable to last a lifetime!
