A canvas is a gorgeous way to professionally showcase a few of your favorite wedding photographs. Your images are printed on artisan stretched canvas. You can either have the image wrap around the sides or have the sides finished in either black or white. These are hand made and have a wire across an open back ready to hang. Some art just belongs on canvas. Always gorgeous.

To Tara:

"THANK YOU again for being the most wonderful, friendly, talented, GIFTED, people that you are. I have watched the slide show on your website 3 times this morning, and each time, I tear up (but I don't cry, because men don't cry, right?!)."

"I'm drunk from looking at photos right now. They are beautiful and I feel almost the same as I did at my wedding. I'm so happy that my wedding happened and I'm not sad that it's over because I knew I'd have photos like this to bring me back to that day.

I have done some mass emails and some Facebook posting of the photos and of the blog and there has been an outpour of compliments and awe. People really have never seen pictures i.e. art as beautiful as this.

Thank you both so much. I'd like to say these are better than I expected but they're not. They are perfection and that's exactly what I'd knew you two could do."

"The wedding photographs - WOW! You both did a fabulous job of making people comfortable, capturing the mood of the event and the personalities of the individuals who attended the wedding. Everyone was amazed at the variety of photos you took and how you seemed to get a photo of absolutely everything. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts for capturing one of the most important days in our lives in such a professional and comprehensive manner that we will forever be able to cherish."
