

– Why Us? –

You not only want a personalized ceremony that speaks of your love, but also delivered by a professional speaker and wedding officiant. Is your once in a lifetime moment worth saving a few dollars to risk an amateur performance for your ceremony? As in most of life, quality may cost a little more. We understand that we all work off budgets, just remember, the wedding officiant is the only wedding vendor you MUST have, and the wedding ceremony sets the tone for everything that follows. We are experienced, professional officiants that honor your wedding day with the utmost respect!

As wedding officiants, we can perform civil ceremonies, intimate ceremonies and elopements. If a more religious tone is desired, we offer ordained wedding ministers as well! Reynolds Treasures offers many wedding packages that include a personalized ceremony. Just the two of you? Charleston, South Carolina makes a wonderful location for your special day! Same-sex marriages are welcome! View the Charleston City Paper Gay Marriage Issue (featuring Reynolds Treasures)!! As of November 20, 2014, same sex marriage is legal in SC!!!
