rates + information

MEET VICTORIA

I actually never wanted to be a wedding photographer.

Now, I couldn't be MORE passionate about it. I mean look at me in the background photo. Just look. Pure bliss, baby. One person 9 years ago told me I was born to be a wedding photographer, and well, they were right. I am obsessed with capturing memories. Because that is exactly what they are, YOUR MEMORIES. What a wild thought, right?! Encapsulating precious moments forever in time is THE DREAM.

For me, this is so much more than a job. This is your life in real time, and I'm here to help you relive every single moment. For now, this is enough about me. Let's get to know each other better in person.

*xxxx,
Victoria*

Do You Travel?

Hell Yea.

What kind of question even is that?

Victoria V is a travel photographer, domestic and international. Here are the additional costs that our clients will be responsible for:

- Airfare
- Baggage Fees
- Hotel Accommodations
- Rental Car (if applicable)
- Per Diem: $100-500 per day, per photographer. Varies dependent on number of additional days needed and season. Peak season has higher per diem.

All items listed above will be booked by Victoria V and reimbursed by the client. The client will have final approval before anything is booked.

Travel rates will be custom based upon distance, location, and any other specific needs.

What's Next?

You tell me, friend.

OBVIOUSLY, at this point you are like “Oh my gosh. She is amazing. I have to use this photographer.” And I totally get that. So let me know that you are on board and here is what will happen:

- 1) If we haven't already, let's chat! I ALWAYS require a face-to-face communication with potential new clients (I'm so needy, I know). The reason for this is because your wedding photographer is the ONE person who is by your side ALLLLLLL day on one of the BIGGEST days of your life. I think it's best we make sure we get along well. ;)
- 2) Alright, so we have talked, you are still in love. Let's get you booked! tell me which package you want and I will send over a contract and invoice.
- 3) You'll need to sign said contract...
- 4) ...and have to put down 25% as a retainer to lock in your date.

After that, I'm all yours! If you have an engagement session, we will get to planning. After that (or if you didn't have an engagement session) you can call, text or email me anytime! The next time I will reach out to you will be one month out from your wedding date. I will send out a questionnaire so that I can get every single detail that I need about your big day. The goal is to have this completed 2 weeks out so that those last 2 weeks can be focused completely on your day. One less thing for you to worry about. That's it!

I look forward to making memories together.

XOXO,
Victoria V
