You planned a perfect wedding day and a killer party and you want to capture all of it. You don't just want wedding photos, you want an artistically curated documentary of your day, from the beginning through the fabulous finish and you don't want to feel restricted by time. From those quiet moments getting ready all the way to dancing and drinks late into the night (not going to lie, the party is my favorite part). We'll be with you every step of the day, for unlimited hours the date of your wedding
