About us

Bianco Bouquet stems from the desire to turn our passion into our profession, combining our love for beauty to creativity and a consolidated experience in the realization of unique moments.

Since 2009, we have organized events all over Italy and abroad, specializing in the production of exclusive weddings in Tuscany, our home.

We carefully listen to our clients, providing them with constant commitment, creativity and insights, turning their wishes and needs into unforgettable moments.

The events designed by Bianco Bouquet distinguish themselves for their refinement, elegance, exclusive locations, and high quality vendors. Our goal is to allow the happy couple to live a truly one-of-a-kind experience.

Costanza Giaconi

Wedding planner

Professionalism, reliability, flexibility and kindness are just some of my main distinguishing traits.

I was born and raised in Florence. I love art and good taste, and have accumulated over a decade of experience in the organization of weddings and events. I just love to organize, because it allows me to create something unique, which is always different, and, most of all, I love to forge real emotions. I always try to establish a relationship with my clients, based on respect, empathy, trust and the sharing of their dreams.

Service

Planning - Design - Consulting

Each event requires a certain degree of professionalism, creativity and an accurate plan, especially a wedding. Based on your demands, together we will identify the best solution for the organization of a ceremony and a reception that will fulfil – and even go beyond – your expectations.

Choosing Bianco Bouquet as your wedding or event planner means to be able to count on a team of experts, with a high level of professionalism, testified by the numerous recognitions and accolades we have received, as well as by long-standing collaborations with the best vendors on both a national and international scale.

Planning

After carefully listening to your wishes and desires, we will make a series of proposals to suit your taste and will take care of the realization of every single detail: from creating the concept to identifying the ideal vendors, as well as organizing correlated events and the constant, on-site presence of our team.

We will take this journey together, in which you will always be the protagonists and we will be your point of reference, at any time.

ORGANIZATION

Once your wishes and demands have been defined, we will guide you through the different phases of planning your wedding, taking care of every single detail, and leaving nothing to chance. We will be present during each step of the organization process, and will guarantee our constant support till – and during – the day of the wedding. We will take care of all the necessary documents, select and book the ideal locations –for both the ceremony and the reception –, design the setup and scenography, follow the logistics and help you choose the best vendors according to your style.

A PRIVATE AREA, JUST FOR YOU

By accessing your private area on our website, you will be able to keep yourself constantly updated on both the developments of the planning and the deadlines scheduled; you can monitor in real time all the quotations, documents, confirmed vendors, and budgets, as well as an updated version of your calendar and timetable.

COORDINATION

On the day of your wedding, coordination will be a crucial part of our work: our team will be present throughout the entire day, in order to ensure that everything goes according to plan and follows the established timing, resolving any potential unforeseen situations and supervising all vendors, both during the preparation and at the reception.

Based on the size of the event, Bianco Bouquet's team will be composed by an appropriate number of assistants, in order to guarantee an efficient organization through the direct interaction with each vendor and guest. In fact, besides being a point of reference for the bride and groom, as well as for our partners and collaborators, we will also be available to welcome and guide your guests during the different phases of the event.

Design

Each event is unique and represents a once-in-a-lifetime moment, we know this very well. At Bianco Bouquet, you will find a team of professionals who accept the challenges of realizing always more exclusive weddings, by creating a one-time concept that reflects your ideas and personality.

STYLING

Choosing the location is usually the first, true step in conceiving your wedding's theme, however, you must also share with us your wishes and visions, providing the necessary inputs to proceed and identify the ideal solutions for your big event.

We will begin by creating a moodboard, where you will be able to see our presentations and suggestions for the wedding's colour palette, scenography, floral arrangements, mise en place, and, in general, the event's overall atmosphere: everything is studied with great attention to detail, in order to make your day truly special.

WEDDING SUITE

Our graphic designers will translate your style into true artworks: invites, menus, the tableau, and everything else we will create for you will carry a particular uniqueness and a bespoke look and feel. We will create a Wedding Suite based on a design project, which will develop around an agreed-upon theme, contributing to an overall balanced result with an identity of its own.

Our team can also create your wedding website, where you can add all of the useful information relating to the event's organization, such as time and place of the ceremony and reception, potential hotel suggestions and activities, dress codes, and anything else that may help the communication with your guests.

Consulting

At Bianco Bouquet, we specialize in providing customized consultancy services, concerning all aspects regarding the wedding and the guests' stay, hence providing assistance at 360 degrees. The experience we have gathered in time in the luxury business field allows us to satisfy any and all requests, offering you a truly bespoke service.

NOT JUST YOUR WEDDING DAY...

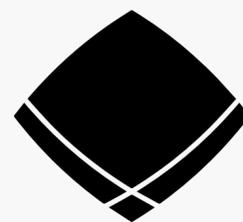

Our goal is to make your wedding a truly authentic experience for both you and your guests. Each moment is important and represents an opportunity to celebrate this event with your loved ones. Besides the day of your wedding, we can take care of the organization of any and all correlated events, such as: welcome dinners, luncheons, brunches, and anything else that may come to mind to entertain your guests, making sure they have an unforgettable time.

PERSONAL ASSISTANT & CONCIERGE

Our concierge service includes the organization of the event's logistics, such as accommodation, transportation, activities and everything else that concerns the welcoming of your guests. This is not limited to the day of the wedding, but also applies to precedent and following days.

At Bianco Bouquet, we will really take care of both you and your guests, and we understand that you must receive the best assistance possible. In fact, our service is thought out to satisfy the needs of all of our clients, allowing you to always enjoy a stress-free experience with your loved ones: from the first steps of the planning process to the actual wedding day, you will be assigned a dedicated email address and a Personal Assistant, who will be ready to help you and take care of any requests.
