

With Love Planning Services 2017

My hope for every couple is that they are not only able to fully ENJOY their time of engagement, but that this special time allows for them to only grow closer together in the days leading up to the day they say "I do"!

While all planning services are customized and designed to fit your specific needs, below you will find a basis of planning services.

Initial consultations are always complimentary.

Complete Wedding Planning

Complete wedding planning is designed to fit couples who wish to be guided throughout their entire wedding planning process. From the time we meet, until the day you say "I do", I will be there every step of the way!

Detailed timelines, vendor selection, budget advisement, and a creative influence are just the beginning! It would be my pleasure to make your wedding day dreams come true and I cannot wait to get started!

Starting at $3,500

Day of Wedding Coordination

Once you've planned the wedding of your dreams, allow me to make sure everything runs as smoothly as possible! One month out from your wedding day, I will step in and alleviate you from the planning process. I will act as the liaison between you and all vendors, create a detailed timeline making for a seamless transition from planning to execution, and be right by your side throughout the rehearsal and wedding day, allowing you to fully take in these amazing moments!

Starting at $1,000

Assistance Wedding Planning

For the couples that are confident in planning most of their wedding but are not so sure about a few of the details, Assistance Wedding Planning is designed to fit your specific needs. Whether you are looking for help with venue shopping, desire budget consulting, or just need some assistance with getting organized, this a la carte service is as flexible as you need it to be.

Honeymoon Planning

In the midst of wedding planning, planning a honeymoon can seem like a daunting task. I am a firm believer that the honeymoon deserves just as much love as the wedding day itself. This time is so important to set aside to just enjoy being newlyweds. Whether your ideal honeymoon is a relaxing beachside vacation, enjoying the sun and spa, or a multi city adventure, enjoying delicious foods and taking in the culture, let me take on the planning and you can just worry about packing!
