JUST FRIENDS

NOT FRIENDS

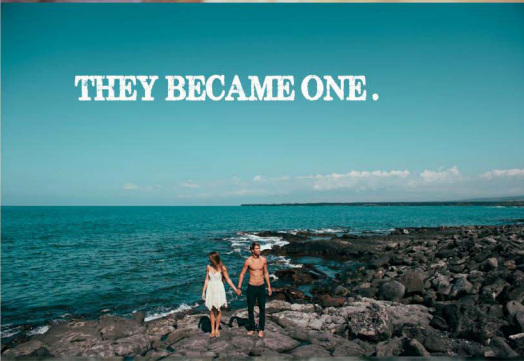

SHE SAID YES.

HAPPILY
EVER
AFTER

THEY BECAME ONE.

Hello.

we're caleb and ciara. here's our story.

both raised by modern hippies, they have a real natural love for love. he's from northern california. she's from central california. they were both raised here on the islands of hawaii which is where they reside in their humble home. their shared love for nature, good music, hot tea, adventure, and staying active is what keeps them sane and extremely happy.

when they're not photographing and capturing love, both caleb and ciara are in their family owned crossfit box coaching and teaching health and wellness to the community, and sharing in the life changing moments of others.

for them, life is always an adventure. they love what they do and feel extremely blessed to do it.

they LOVE open spaces. the sea. rugged cliffsides. rolling fields of green. awe inspiring forests. and pretty much nature. that's what inspires them. their style of photography defined: whimsy. rustic. organic. simple. and fluid. they capture life with open minds and strive to always think outside the box.

march 2009. he saw her

may 2009. she watched him surf. they hung out. a lot.

august 2009 he told her he liked her. she told him she didn't like him september 2009 he kissed her october 2009 they were inseparable

april 2013 he asked her to marry him. she said yes december 2013 i do. me too. and they lived happily ever after.. and took rad photos.
