

FULL DAY WEDDING COVERAGE

$3,000 / up to 12 hours of coverage for your big day

Includes the whole shabang! Not one second of your day will be missed. I will start my day when you start yours and head out when the dance floor starts dying down. In between is a whole bunch of hugs, kisses, some I dos, and lots of laughter. Dont worry, my second shooter and I will capture it all.

This package includes easy access to your images through a private, but shareable online gallery. From this gallery you are able to download all of your images with print rights straight to your computer and order heirloom quality prints from my preferred vendors.

I also include a complimentary engagement session with this package. This is a great way for us to get to meet each other and for you to experience what being in front of my camera is going to be like day of. The only butterflies you'll get is the anticipation of marrying the love of your life.

HALF DAY WEDDING COVERAGE

$1800 / 6 hours of consecutive wedding coverage

This package allows you to choose what is most important to you. The countdown starts when I arrive on location and then you get my camera and I for 6 consecutive hours of wedding coverage. Once we have your date secured you and I can work together to put together a general wedding day timeline, so we can make sure that I am there for the pictures that matter most to you.

This package includes easy access to your images through a private, but shareable online gallery. From this gallery you are able to download all of your images with print rights straight to your computer and order heirloom quality prints from my preferred vendors.

Although this package does not come with an engagement session, I do offer you a 50% discount if you choose to book one. DO IT! ITS SO FUN!
