Wedding Season 2024 & 2025

A close-up photograph of a couple holding hands. The man is on the left, wearing a dark suit jacket. The woman is on the right, wearing a white dress. Her hand is prominently featured, showing a large diamond engagement ring on her ring finger. The background is softly blurred, showing what appears to be a building with windows. The overall mood is warm and celebratory.

woohoo!

YOU MADE IT, YOU'RE GETTING MARRIED!

I can't wait to hear more about what you have planned for your day, but first let's get you comfortable with what to expect!

Hey there,

I'M ASH OF ASK ASH PHOTOGRAPHY

"What's the hardest thing about photography?" Writing funny, cute bios about myself... Ha! Okay I'll try!

My name is Ashley but you can call me Ash. Dogs are preFURred, I love a good pun, things I say should never be taken too seriously unless it's about how fabulous you look on your wedding day. Trust me I'm dying inside! I'm a romantic at heart. I spend my evenings with a good movie or tv show and a bowl of popcorn. I grossly love my husband and contrary to popular belief being married is wonderful! The key is to laugh, life is short we shouldn't take it too seriously.

I am a bride fresh out of planning and in the "post bride" phase. I know first hand what you'll miss if you don't have, the bumps to expect along the way and how to manage the never ending complaints of the one someone who shall remain nameless. Rest assured, you're wedding day is safe with me!

Two truths and a lie: I have two tattoos, my wedding was oceanfront and I can't lie to save my life.

PHEWWWW, I DID IT.

Now let's talk about more exciting things,
like your wedding!

“

HER CREATIVE EYE Baffles me, and I am obsessed with the album I received.

“

ASH WAS SIMPLY AMAZING. SHE WAS ATTENTIVE
TO NOT ONLY MYSELF BUT TO MY WHOLE FAMILY.

HERE'S WHAT TO EXPECT FROM ME:

Ask Ash Approach

I'm sure you've gotten this far because you want someone to capture your special day in the moment. Less stand and say cheese, more candid please! My goal for your gallery is for you to feel the love and magic all over again. That's in those belly laugh, teary eyed, hand squeezing, fleeting moments that you'll have photos of to cherish forever. If you want your photos to stand the test of time and to feel like the flood of emotions from your wedding day all over again - you're in the right place! Add with your love of natural environments, being a little untraditional, scenic landscapes, raw emotions, neutral colors, and heart felt details then we are basically a match made in heaven.

(Move over fiance your photographer is here, ha!)

With me as your'e photographer you'll officially be apart of the Ask Ash team. You won't be hiring someone to just show up and move on. You'll have me as a resource from booking up until your big day and by the end we'll feel like we've known each other for years! No need to break a sweat wondering and waiting for your gallery. That's why having full faith in your photographer is so important!

If your'e feeling the vibe, thinking, " yes, that's so me!"
Then keep on reading!

All Moments Captured

“ I had nothing short of an absolutely PERFECT experience working with Ash. My intimate wedding took place in beautiful scenic Sedona right on a nature trail, and she made sure to capture not just my husband and I's love for each other, but also the GORGEOUS red rocks surrounding us. She used the natural lighting and landscape and made sure it was incorporated in every shot. She was candid throughout the ceremony, and I never noticed her zipping around taking so many amazing photos and getting every angle! Her creative eye baffles me, and I am obsessed with the album I received. I absolutely look forward to having more sessions with Ash in the future and would highly recommend her to anyone.

ALL ABOUT YOUR

Engagement Shoot

I get asked all the time, is an engagement shoot worth it? The answer is yes! Hear me out, I almost didn't have an engagement shoot done. I decided to go for it because it's a once in a life time thing and I knew my fiance loved me enough to power through an hour of photos. I am so happy I did it! I was able to meet with our photographer, get an idea of what it felt like to be behind the camera and be surprise free on my wedding day. These are all the reasons I would encourage you to book one. I can't wait to meet you, the more I know about you as a couple the better your pictures will come out. The feelings totally translate and let's be honest you might be a little too nervous or distracted on your wedding day to show your true colors. That's why it's so helpful for me to know your personalities ahead of time so I can try to pull them out of you on your big day! I'll just leave this here for you to decide...

PROS

- having one of a kind photos in complete engagement bliss
- they look amazing on save the dates
- you'll get more comfortable behind the camera
- you have the chance to get to know your photographer
- an excuse to buy a cute outfit
- more one on one time with your fiance
