W E L C O M E

You're engaged! This is just the beginning of the amazing journey ahead and I couldn't be more excited for you! I consider it such an honor and privilege to be invited into this precious time in your life.

It is my greatest desire that you would feel so very loved and well taken care of from the very first moment we begin chatting about your day. I love connecting with my brides on a personal level and becoming a friend throughout the planning process... hearing about your dating years, your proposal story, and your plans for one of the most precious days of your life! There is so much joy in store and I seriously can't wait to celebrate with you!

The information in this guide is meant to help you through your wedding-related questions so you can be relaxed and excited for your big day. It also covers all of my offerings for a wonderful wedding experience.

If you still have questions, don't hesitate to give me a ring or send over a message! I am here for you every step of the way.
