Tourbillon Collection

A recent addition to the Laure Selignac family, the Tourbillon Collection was inspired by the festive end of the year holiday activities that flooded the streets of Paris. Luxurious and refined are often the words used to describe this collection. The elegant gold and platinum arabesques move and intertwine as our eye follows their trail to a faraway land.

Enchanting and spirited, the Tourbillon Collection blends easily with any modern home décor at any time of year.

LAURE SELIGNAC: ARTISAN OF GILDED PORCELAIN

An artisanal know-how unique to France

Combining creativity of the fine arts with artisanal know-how, Laure Selignac opened its doors in 1919. Originally, this small family business devoted to exquisite decorative porcelain was called Paris Style. The business was given new life when Alexandra Groussard took over the company in 2000 and renamed it Laure Selignac. Now more than 15 years later, Laure Selignac has become a respected reference in the world of fine painted porcelain. In 2009, the company received the highly respected and coveted award of “Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant” (Living Heritage Company) delivered by the French government to those firms who demonstrate excellence in their respect and application of traditional and industrial skills unique to France.

A Savoir-Faire Respected throughout the World

Elegantly decorated in gold relief, each creation is unique and completed using traditional artisanal methods. Artisan of extremely high-standing, the Maison Laure Selignac has an outstanding international reputation and works with several of the most well-known luxury brands.

Today, Laure Selignac creates more than 4500 pieces of porcelain per year and employs a core full-time team of 5 people while working with numerous external experts and partners. The team at Maison Laure Selignac takes pride in sharing their knowledge of this treasured art form with others through annual competitions and their featured role at the Festival des Metiers Hermes.

ARTISANS OF EXCEPTION FOR CLIENTS OF PRESTIGE

Collaborations with some of the most well-known luxury brands

Whether it is luxurious porcelain jewellery or decorative pieces for the home and/or table, Maison Laure Selignac has and continues to seduce many of the most respected names in hotels, restaurants, fashion and even politics. Regardless for whom they are working – be it the famous Tour d’Argent, Hotel le Crillon, le Chateau de Versailles or the Caron, just to name a few—our artisans take to heart even the most demanding requests from our clients.

The Festival des Metiers Hermes: Window onto the World of Exceptional Artisanry

Amongst Laure Selignac’s many accolades, the privileged relationship with Hermes as a routine participant in the Festival des Metiers highlights the level of confidence such prestigious clients have in the craftsmanship of Laure Selignac even beyond the elegant porcelain pieces hand-painted exclusively for them. The painters of Laure Selignac have participated for numerous years in the Festival des Metiers Hermes in France and abroad. This event is a unique opportunity for the public to discover the areas of fine craftsmanship within the Hermes family and an ideal venue for our painters to demonstrate their unique skills in gilded porcelain.

PRIX LAURE SELIGNAC: 6 YEARS OF CREATIVITY AND INVENTION

Since 2007, Laure Selignac has organized an annual competition with the objective of promoting the savoir-faire of amateur and professional artisans specialized in the art of decorative porcelain and rewarding them for their creativity and expertise. The number of outstanding participants returning each year to compete in the Prix Laure Selignac has attracted the support and participation of many highly respected judges including : Laurence Benguigui, Laurent Wauquiez, former French President Valéry Giscard D’Estaing, Jean Rochefort and Nathalie Baye. All were inspired by this unique event which highlights this rare art form still practiced today.
