Generally speaking, couples who choose this service are usually interested in getting married privately with a reception to follow either on the same day or at a later date. This service is also ideal for couples needing to be married quickly for legal reasons or for insurance purposes.

How It Works

After reserving your wedding date, I will be in contact with you to discuss the signing of your marriage license, which you'll need to obtain beforehand at any county Registrar throughout the state. I'm happy to perform my Justice of the Peace services at any location within a reasonable distance to my location by Duluth. If you'd like to have your marriage license signed outside of this area, please note that a mileage fee may apply, which I'll discuss with you during the process of reserving your date. If you're having trouble thinking of a location, I'm happy to provide you with a few recommendations.

On your actual wedding date, I will meet you and your two witnesses who are required to be present to sign your marriage license, at the location that you have selected. All parties will sign the marriage license and I will then be responsible for filing your marriage license with the County Clerk in the county in which the signing of your marriage license took place.
