

Ginger Snaps

PHOTOGRAPHY

hi y'all!

I'm Ginger, photographer & owner of GingerSnaps Photography!

Growing up in Eastern North Carolina, I spent every summer as a kid on The Outer Banks and moved here in high school. I love beach life and am right at home working in my flip-flops :)

I earned degrees in Studio Art and Psychology at UNC Chapel Hill (Go Heels!) Following graduation in 2006, I launched GingerSnaps and have been shooting professionally ever since.

When I'm not behind the camera, you'll find me gardening, DIYing, or taking Gracie & Ross (my rescue pups) for a walk in the woods or trip to the beach. I love to cook, entertain & eat good food. And I'm always excited to travel! I fell in love with photography while studying art in Florence, Italy and have had the chance to shoot destination work in some really amazing places.

Having photographed hundreds of weddings and well over 1,000 portraits, my enthusiasm for creativity, growing as an artist, and building relationships with my clients continue to be some of my favorite aspects of my career.

I look forward to getting to know you, hearing all about your wedding plans, and capturing these special memories!
