Welcome!

Throughout the ages, cultures have celebrated major life transitions through ceremony and ritual. Whether it is marriage, the birth of a child, the passage from childhood to young adult, or the loss of a loved one, we desire to commemorate and honor these transitions and life celebrations with the support of our community, of close friends and family.

Reverend Pamela Kellar officiates ceremonies that celebrate these life passages. My goal is to work with you in creating a beautiful and meaningful ceremony that reflects your values and the love you wish to express. I offer wedding, services that are unique, heartfelt wedding ceremonies; ceremonies that set a foundation for your life together and celebrate your love and commitment.

A complimentary consultation allows you to share your ceremony ideas, wishes and expectations as well as your personal, spiritual and cultural histories and values. We then discuss how Ceremonies of the Heart can help make your wedding ceremony dreams come true.

I strive on being “professional, supportive and caring” and having “a warm and eloquent presence”, that are traits that will enhance the quality and experience of your ceremony. I am flexible, organized, punctual and will work with your needs. In essence, I enjoy helping to make your ceremony creation as joyous and stress-free as possible, your ceremony a heartfelt experience and your special day a truly-memorable occasion.

WEDDING CEREMONIES

Pamela Kellar provides extensive experience offering high-quality, professional service in wedding ceremony consultation, creation and performance. As each couple is unique, Ceremonies of the Heart works with clients to create a ceremony that reflects who they are and how they wish to express their love for one another.

INITIAL CONSULTATION

We want you to feel totally comfortable booking our services, which is why we offer a free, no-obligation consultation with your officiant before you ever sign a contract. We typically conduct these initial consultations via Skype, FaceTime, or phone, but if you would prefer to meet the officiant in person somewhere near their home you can certainly do so. Wedding dates are held for 2 weeks after the initial consultation, for the couple decision to proceed.

PLANNING MEETING

Once you've agreed, I will be in touch to schedule a planning meeting. This meeting normally happens in person, but it can also be done via video or phone call as well. As the officiant, I will ask you questions about what you feel is important to include in your ceremony and get to know the two of you and learn about your relationship. This information will help your officiant in writing your ceremony to make sure it reflects your beliefs and personalities.

CEREMONY EDITING

Following your planning meeting, I will write a full draft of your ceremony and email it to you for your review. You can revise your draft ceremony as much as you'd like until it is the exact wedding ceremony you want, and then simply email your edited draft back to your officiant. We want it to feel perfect – if you need additional suggestions or guidance, we are happy to help at no additional charge.

THE CEREMONY!

I will arrive at your wedding early to help coordinate with the wedding party and get ready for the processional. I am more than happy to work with other wedding professionals, and are perfectly comfortable with photographers taking pictures anywhere they would like during the ceremony. I will deliver the exact ceremony you've discussed, and create a wonderful experience for you and your guests.

THE MARRIAGE LICENSE

Although it's your responsibility to get the marriage license before the wedding, your officiant will take care of signing it afterward and filing it with the proper office. You'll also get a copy of the license for you to keep, in case you need it for your records or on your honeymoon.
