

WEDDING INVESTMENT GUIDE

I'M SO GLAD TO MEET YOU.

If you've gotten this far, you've probably already seen this face. If you haven't- hi! I'm Brianna. I'm a NC/WA based photographer, but I love taking this one woman show on the road to capture love stories across the world.

I would describe my photography style as romantic and soulful. I try and My style of photography is a mix of candid and romantic/editorial imagery. I love candid moments, adventurous, wild environments, and couples who are passionate about the experience I can give them. I'm all about being a complete third wheel on your adventure and documenting how you naturally are together. Because of this, my photography style emphasizes lots prompting over posing. My goal is to catch all the little in between moments- you know, the REAL stuff. If that sounds like what you're looking for and the type of wedding photographs you're wanting, then you're in the right place!!

THE EXPERIENCE.

I want to tell your story.

Every love story is unique, and you deserve a photographer who gets that.

Whenever you book with me, you are investing in more than just a photographer. You are booking a friend, a guide, and someone who you can trust to tell your story in an intimate and artistic way.

Two things that I prioritize is authenticity and vulnerability in my work. The most important part of ur experience together is ensuring that I create something that captures the raw emotions behind whatever we are doing. Whether that is the way your partner looks at you when you are laughing, or the love and emotion that your bridesmaid's have they see you walking down the aisle for the first time.

Along with that, I want to be someone that is there for you all along the way. I want to be the person that can help you find the florist that will bring your vision to life, remind you to take the hair tie off your wrist, and hand you tissues if you shed some tears along the way. We will laugh together, dance together (play a harry styles song at your wedding and watch me dance my heart out), and create the best experience that is uniquely you.

In the end, I want to be someone you feel comfortable enough to let experience one of the biggest days of your life with. If this sounds like the vibe you are looking for- I think you're in the right place.

THE NEXT STEPS.

Getting to know who you guys are is so important to me, because the more we know each other, the better I can capture your love story as authentically as possible. I would love to get to know you guys more and have the chance to explain my process with you on how I work with my couples from start until your big day.

After you have had the chance to read through the investment guide- let me know from the times attached to your email when you would like to set up a consult call!

*all the love,
Bri*
