

2016 Wedding Pricing

When we decided to film weddings, we had two things in mind...

FIRST, we want to make things simple. We create high quality videos that capture YOUR wedding story. Because our clients have different priorities and every wedding is unique, we have simplified our offerings to make the process easy. We have three packages, no hourly limits, and no confusing price structures. We want to make life easier for you.

SECOND, we are committed to making your wedding video awesome. We want you to enjoy watching your wedding film. For that to happen, we need to tell the story of your day. Stylistically, we take a fly-on-the-wall approach. If you don't see us, we're doing our job. We want to film the hair and makeup. We want to film you getting photographed. We want to film you cutting the cake. We want to capture every moment of your wedding so you can relive them again and again.
