Fees for Officiant

Elopement	$150-$200
20 – 200 Guests	$300 - $500
Vow Renewal	$250 - $400
Rehearsal Attendance	$100

The above fees include consultation, drafting of the ceremony and filing of all required documents. It is the responsibility of the bride and groom to provide the marriage license prior to the ceremony taking place.

A 50% non-refundable deposit is required when the contract is executed. Full payment is expected 60 days prior to the ceremony date. Until your deposit has been received, your date will not be secured. Failure to pay the balance due within the allotted time of 60 days prior to the ceremony date will result in your time slot being taken and/or reserved for another couple. No fees are refundable.

Please note that I offer Square, Venmo, Paypal for transactions for credit/debit card payment. This transaction will be treated as a credit.

*Must be located within my district. Also, two (2), 18 or older, witnesses are required by North Carolina law. I can provide a witness for an additional fee of $25. The price will vary based on the number of guests and type of ceremony.

My fees include drafting and revising of the ceremony, as instructed. When possible, a meeting with the couple prior to drafting the ceremony (we may have to meet a designated spot midway between parties or do a Zoom meeting). The mailing or filing of the marriage license. Copies will be made with a tracking number of the license before sending, which will be emailed to you for reference. It will be your responsibility to notify the Register of Deeds in the county where filed to request a copy once I have mailed it in. You will be able to track this through the email that I send to you.
