

Congratulations on your engagement! Thank you for your interest in Anima Davina Photography . My digital package includes an engagement session, consultation to go over wedding details, two photographers ALL day of the wedding and print rights and an online gallery to view and share your professionally edited, high resolution images. All of this is $1650. 00 with the option to add on prints or other mini sessions such as trash the dress or boudoir. I do ask for a deposit at time of booking and signing of contract . I do a basic “print “ package that starts at $1000. You can add on to this package as well . (This does not include the digital images !)It include prints that you order through my lab directly from your online gallery . (Minimum $450 order)This package also includes the engagement session, a consult, ALL day of your wedding , an online viewing gallery and two photographers. Again, congratulations on this very special occasion ! I would love to know more about what you want for your special day and hope that I can put something together for your needs . If you have any more questions please let me know.

If you are having something smaller or don't need a full day with me please contact me with details and we can put something together that would be PERFECT for your day..