YOUR MOMENTS, YOUR MEMORIES, YOUR LIFE.

I love weddings, possibly a little too much. But really, what's better than a wedding!? It's a day full of excitement and anticipation, tons of fun, and all the emotions. It's my goal to help you be present and fully experience it all in the moment while I capture the stills that will be your forever memories. While I'll be sure to grab all the must-have shots on your list, I also enjoy surprising couples with the candid and unexpected moments from their day. The un-posed parts, less-than-perfect shots, and surprising moments throughout the day- you'll be able to relive it all.

Since I'll be with you from the time you get ready until you're dancing the night away, serving you all day is my biggest priority. We will work through your timeline and details together to ensure that your day runs as smooth as possible while getting all the photos you want. It's your day! I'm just there to document it all, while helping you feel comfortable and even enjoy the whole photo-taking process. Most couples are surprised at how fun it actually is!
