Nice to meet you

You've made it here which means you are interested in me being a small part of your big day! I am here to capture the little moments as well as the big moments that you never want to forget. I want to capture you laughing at the toast the maid of honor makes that reminds you of your college days, and the sweet looks you give your hubby. I want to document your love story beautifully and make you look and feel like super-models. Let's make lasting memories together!

FAQ

How many images are included?

-For engagements I will give you a minimum of 40 images and for weddings I will give you a minimum of 350

Can I have the RAW images?

- A chef would never serve you raw food and I would never give you halfway done images.

I promise you will receive the best quality images and I won't leave anything out.

How does payment work?

- I require a $30 deposit on the day you book and then the rest the day after our session. I accept Venmo, Checks and Cash

Will you Photoshop me skinnier/ with clear skin/ holding a tiny elephant?

-Although the tiny elephant would be cute as hell I am here to capture your natural beauty and the special love between you and your boo. I want you to feel beautiful and have fun. Don't worry I got you, you will feel and look like a supermodel without crazy photoshopping.

“ Mikaela took our engagement photos and the result was beautiful photos that will live in our albums and on our walls forever. We absolutely LOVE every picture, it was difficult to choose our favorites. The session was also a breeze. We were nervous about being in front of a camera and worried we would come off as awkward, but Mikaela was great at holding space, making us feel comfortable, and giving us tips on posing for the perfect shot”

Let's do this

Meeting

If you think we would be a good fit let's hop on facetime or schedule a meeting to make sure we vibe. There we can plan your dream day. I will make sure to answer all of your questions you have and put you at ease before your big day!

Contract and Deposit

Marriage is all about commitment and so is the relationship with your photographer. Once you decide I am the right photographer for you, I will send over a contract and you can make your deposit that day.

I'm excited to be a small part of your big day!
