HOW I SHOOT WEDDINGS

Classically trained in fine art photography from East Carolina University, I've been honing my craft through wedding & portrait photography for 15 years. With a love of storytelling, I fully immerse myself in the love story of your day. Always on the lookout for interesting compositions and beautiful light; I take a documentary approach, only stepping in when necessary. I know when to let moments happen naturally and when a little direction is needed. I'm incredibly honored to share these special moments with you, your families and friends. Thank you for considering me to capture your day!
