

You are not a cookie cutter bride.

You should not have cookie cutter invitations.

The wedding invitations are packaged quite differently. Usually, your stationary is order as follows; your invitation at one price, response cards at another and so on. At Patti & Hank everything is sold as a package with NO minimum purchase. You want 123 packages then that is what you order. The package includes:

- Invitation
- RSVP card
- Direction card
- Thank-you card

The price of our packages range for $18.00 per package to $8.00 per package.

Also included in the price is the option to have me address your envelopes. Both inner and mailing! Just send me your list in either a Word or Excel file and I take care of the rest. The font I use for the envelopes will match your invitation! Finally, I also include in the price, place cards and table cards. They are the size of a fold over business card and will match the design of your invitation.

We also design both simple and in-depth wedding and event programs as well as menu cards, but, as an extra charge. These would be sent out with your place and table cards.

I think it's quite frightening that they expect you to pick paper and ink colors with a disclaimer something along the lines of, "All monitors are different, therefore what you receive might not be the exact color you are seeing." Why shouldn't it be the exact color you think you are ordering? The question then becomes, how I do guarantee you will receive exactly what you expect.

You first order an actual sample of your wedding invitation package. The cost is $25.00 and is credited back to you when you order your invitations. The steps are quite simple:

- Select a wedding invitation style
- Complete the form
- Purchase a sample wedding invitation package

Within three to four business days, I will email you PDFs of your wedding invitation package. Once you have approved the PDFs I will then make up one complete set for your final approval. A true sample wedding invitation set in your hands! Again, turnaround time is usually three to four business days. Shipping in the US is included in the price of your sample and wedding invitations. Unfortunately at this time, we do not ship internationally.

Once you approve the sample, I will email you a link to order your invitations. At checkout, you will receive a $25.00 credit towards your order. Your order will shipped within two weeks from your order date.

(Depending on your design and the number of place and table cards needed we required a minimum of four business days to complete this. They will be send out priority 2-Day mail.)
