BEVERAGE POLICIES

Bar Menu

Guests will be served the beverage menu of your choice. Prices are subject to change.

Staffing

The SteamPlant will provide all of the necessary beverage staff for your event including: Bartender, on-site event manager, staff runners and a bar back. The SteamPlant will also provide all necessary glassware for your event: including table water goblets, wine glasses and beer glasses.

Ordering

When ordering alcohol for your event/reception or meeting, the following applies:

You will only be charged for what is consumed at the end of the night for:

- All consumed liquor, wine and bottled beer, on the SteamPlant bar menu.

You will be charged for the entire item when:

- Upon tapping a keg. To avoid any unnecessary charges in this area, the SteamPlant staff will carefully monitor tapping into new kegs and will most likely get your permission before doing so.

You will be charged for the entire liquor item when:

- Products ordered are not on the current SteamPlant bar menu.
- Opening a new bottle of wine.

The SteamPlant does not have a retail liquor sales license. All unconsumed alcohol ordered for any event must remain on the premises after the event and cannot be purchased.

Non-alcoholic beverages

The SteamPlant has an assortment of non-alcoholic beverages available for your guests. This selection includes unlimited sodas, juices, regular and decaf coffee, hot tea, lemonade, Iced Tea and ice. If you choose to have non-alcoholic drinks available at your event, there will be a $2.00/person charge.

Tax:

The standard Salida tax rate is 7.9%. This will be added to all liquor, wine and beer and other beverages including lemonade, iced tea and coffee.

DEPOSIT SCHEDULE

To Reserve The SteamPlant Event Center:

- 1.) A deposit in the amount of 50% of the rental fee, or a minimum of $500 for Ballroom events (whichever is greater) is due on execution of the contract. The remainder is due 60 days following the execution of the contract.
