

" Photography is a way of feeling, of touching, of loving. What you have caught on film is captured forever...It remembers little things long after you have forgotten everything." -- Aaron Sikind

Engagement / Bridal Sessions (stand alone)

It is understandable that not everyone is comfortable in front of the camera. Trying to find that comfort level on your wedding day is not the time to experience any added stress. An engagement or bridal session is one of the most important things you and your fiancé can do to reduce that stress and help improve your wedding day photographs.

Bridal sessions focus on the bride (sans groom) in her wedding dress, with hair and make-up done that takes place prior to the wedding day. Note: The bride is required to provide assistance with her dress, hair, and make-up.

Both Engagement and bridal sessions are generally scheduled about 4-6 weeks before the big day to allow enough time for processing so you can showcase your images from the session at your wedding. It's a good time for us to get to know one another better and for you to see how I work.

These stand alone sessions are for those couples or brides who do not want the hubbub of wedding day photos or whose plans involve a destination wedding with a local photographer. They include principal photography by Evan Schwartz, a local location of choice, up to two wardrobe changes, a 12x8 Signature lay-flat book containing your choice of 10-20 final edited images, and a private online gallery of your final edited images for viewing, purchasing, and sharing images with your family and friends.

Frequently Asked Questions

How much experience do I have?

I purchased my first SLR when I turned thirteen and photographed my first wedding shortly thereafter. It wasn't anything formal; I was a guest at a family wedding and if it were not for my images, the hired photographer would have missed key moments of the day. After that I was hooked on photography and photographing life events. Now, some thirty years later, I still haven't stopped my pursuit of capturing that one special moment that makes the bride's day special.

What's included?

Each experience is tailored to the client's needs and budget. Base pricing generally includes my services as your photographer, 6-hours of event coverage and a personal online gallery for viewing, purchasing, and sharing images with family & friends. Everything else is provided a la cart, so that you can select only those services and product you want. Additional hours of coverage, USB drives of final edited images, Signature albums and books are extra.

Do I require a contract?

Yes. Contracts spell out what is expected of both parties and protects both our interests.

Do I require a deposit or Retainer?

Yes. A non-refundable retainer of 50% is required to hold your date. The remaining balance is due no less than 14-days before the event.

After I pay the retainer, can I make incremental payments on the balance due?

Yes. We understand that you have other expenses in relation to your event as well. Let us know and we can work out a payment schedule that is more manageable. Just remember, final payment must be received no later than 14-days before the event.

What forms of payment do you take?

We accept major credit cards, cashier's checks, and money orders. There is a $3.50 processing fee for all credit card payments.

What happens if you cancel or reschedule? If I should cancel?

If you reschedule and I am able to rebook the original date, I will amend our contract to reflect the new date and credit any monies paid to the new booking. If you cancel outright, any monies paid less the non-refundable deposit will be refunded. All changes and cancellations must be in writing.

In the unlikely event I cancel due to circumstances beyond my control, every effort to find and send a substitute photographer at no additional cost to you. If you decline a substitute photographer, you will receive a full refund of all money paid to date.

Do I carry liability insurance?

Yes. This protects both of us in case of unforeseen accidents on your wedding day.
