FAQs

How are travel fees calculated?

Travel is calculated through Google Maps and is based on the miles or minutes (whichever is higher) from the Celebrant's home. A rate of $1 per mile/minute will be charged beyond what is included for the ceremony option. As professionals charged with the responsibility of officiating your wedding, we must ensure that we arrive at your venue early. We must coordinate with the DJ, videographer, venue coordinator, photographer, etc. If we are traveling a distance, we must allow extra time not only for travel, but for traffic delays. All of this factors in to our fees.

What are your qualifications?

We are endorsed as Humanist Celebrants, legally licensed to practice official marriage ceremonies. The Humanist Society, which was founded in 1939, has provided Celebrant Certification to members of the American Humanist Association since 1991. Our certification gives us the full rights and responsibilities of ordained clergy and authorizes us to attend to the pastoral and ceremonial needs of anyone seeking these services in any state in the United States. The Humanist Society, though fully recognized as a legal ordination body, has no affiliation with any faith or religious creed. Our goal is to provide a ceremony that is all about the couple, rather than any ideology or religious tradition. However, we do incorporate traditional and cultural rituals, and create meaningful interfaith ceremonies.

Will we get to read and approve the written ceremony before our wedding day?

Absolutely! If there are things you would like to change about the ceremony we have personally crafted for you, we will work together until you are completely satisfied.

On a wedding day, when do you arrive?

It all depends. Most often, we arrive anywhere from 30-60 minutes early so we can be helpful to a couple, their wedding party and family and friends. When we arrive, we get to work to ensure all pre-ceremony details are attended to for an elegant and easy (and prompt) ceremony start. We will sign your license as well, so you are able to enjoy your friends and family right after the ceremony. This is also the time when we will do a mic check and consult with the other wedding professionals who are there.

For elopements, we arrive 10-15 minutes before the ceremony.
