Welcome

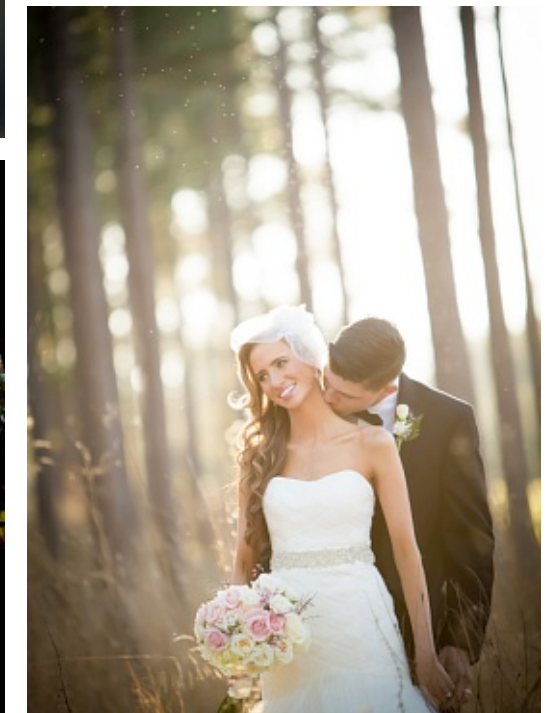

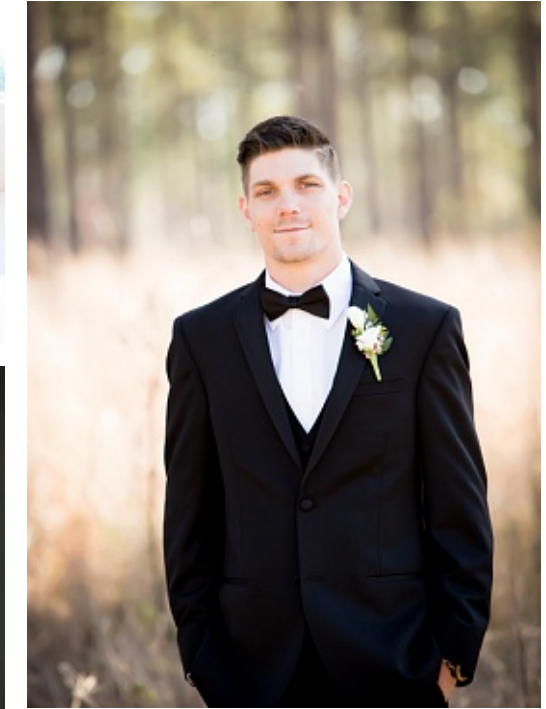

How can I even describe my love for wedding days? Weddings are so sacred and tender to me. I live for the moment when the doors open and I get to photograph a groom looking at his beautiful bride as he fights back all his manly emotions and tries not to cry. For me, at that moment, all of the world stops and heaven meets earth. And then to watch two people say vows to each other committing for a lifetime...what can be more precious than that?? I feel perfectly certain saying that you will not find someone else as willing to go so above and beyond for you on your day. To me, its a personal responsibility and an honor to make sure you have the best day possible.

I would love to sit and talk with you more about your own wedding day plans. It would be a pure honor to be the photographer you chose to walk with you through your own wedding day. I would love nothing more than to help tell your beautiful love story.

xoxoxo,
Tonya

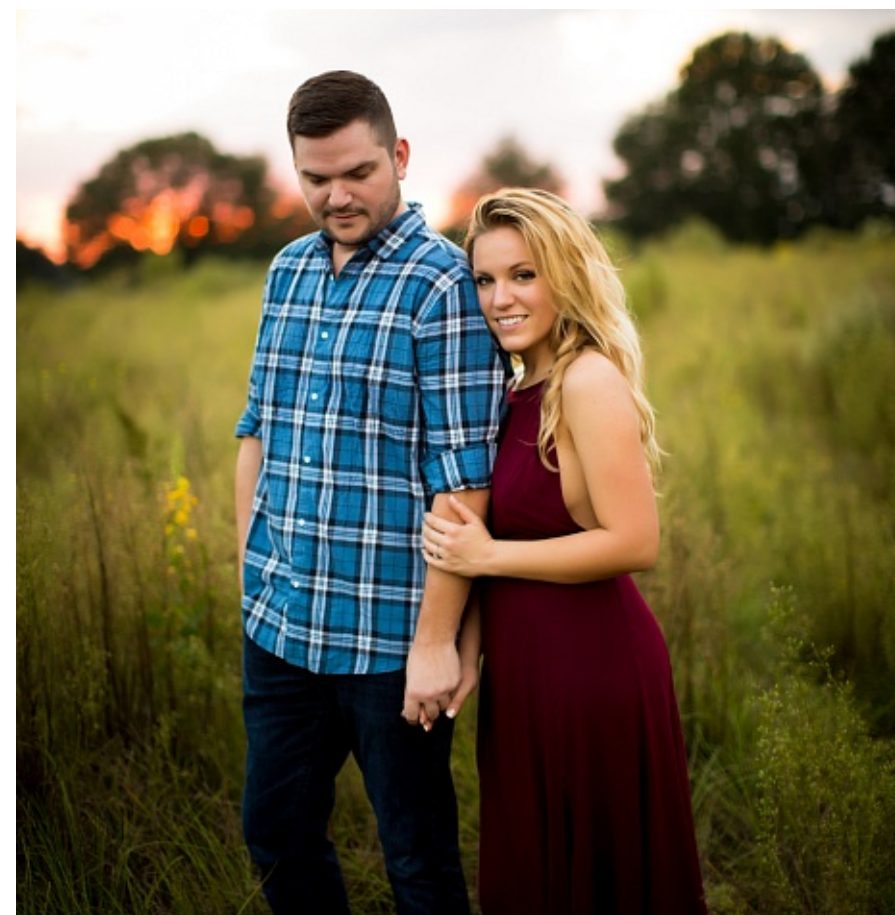

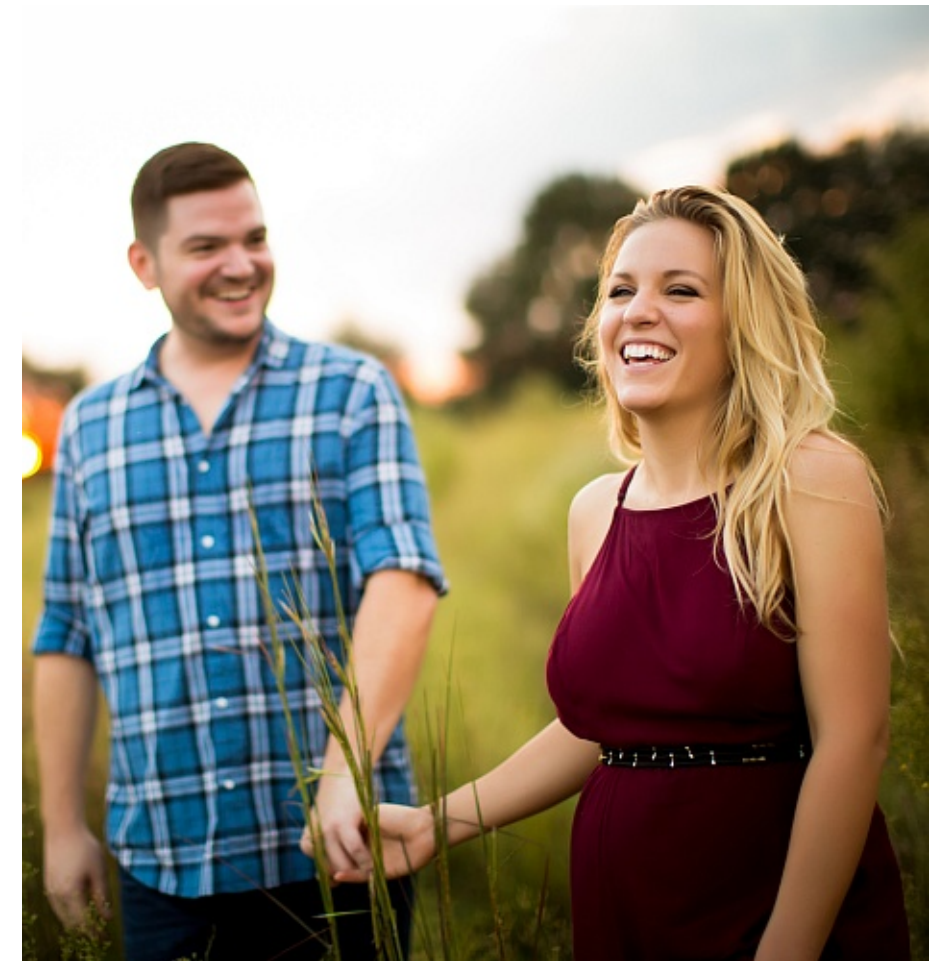

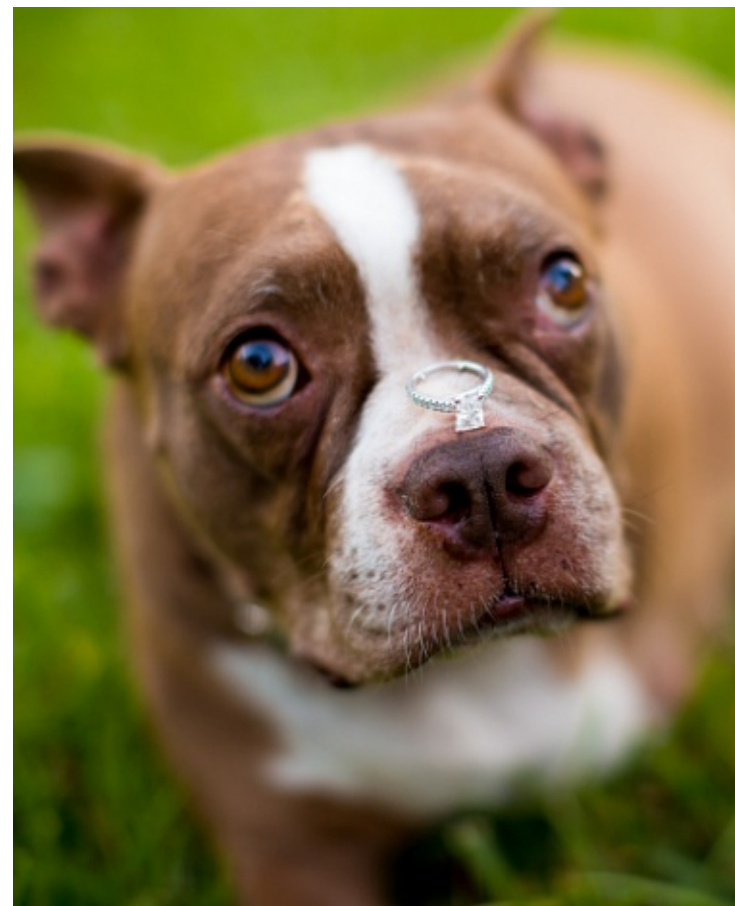

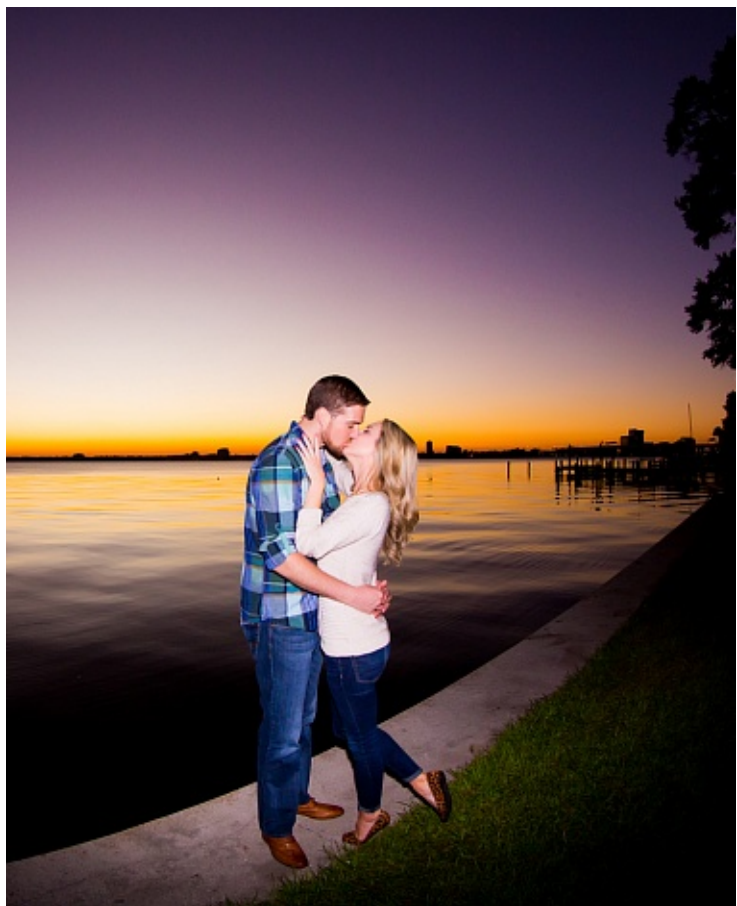

The Engagement Session

Engagement sessions come with every single package. I love being able to get to know my couples better before the big day! The sessions are always at a location that is important to you two. It's a great time for me to see how you two interact with each other and in front of the camera. And don't worry ladies, I make sure your sweet groom has fun too. :)

Engagement photos are perfect to use for Save the Dates, Signature Books, and to decorate your reception room!

The Big Day is Finally Here...

We come to meet the girls three hours before the ceremony to start getting the shots of jewelry, shoes, dress, etc...We'll take pictures of the getting ready stuff, and then we'll start taking those formal photos we all know and love. Don't worry, we make it fun! I'll place you in poses, but the pictures will look like you are caught in a moment, not necessarily standing in a line and smiling for the camera. Your pictures will reflect personalities and fun.

After the bridesmaids pictures, we will take pictures with the bride and her family. We like to take as much of this stuff as possible BEFORE the ceremony so we don't have to take the time afterwards. After the wedding, you will be eager to get to your reception!

Once we finish with the bride's stuff, we move along to the guys. We do the same of everything for them (except less of the getting ready stuff).

It's time for the ceremony! My favorite shot of the day is the groom's face as he sees his bride! TO this day, I still tear up at that moment with every couple!

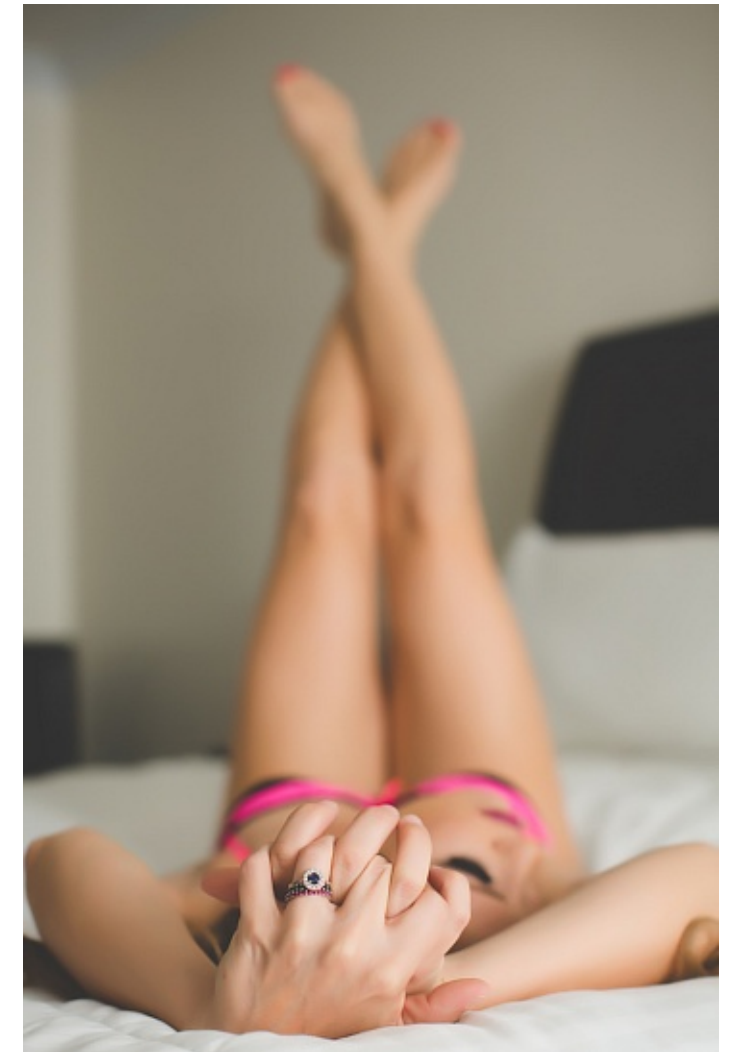

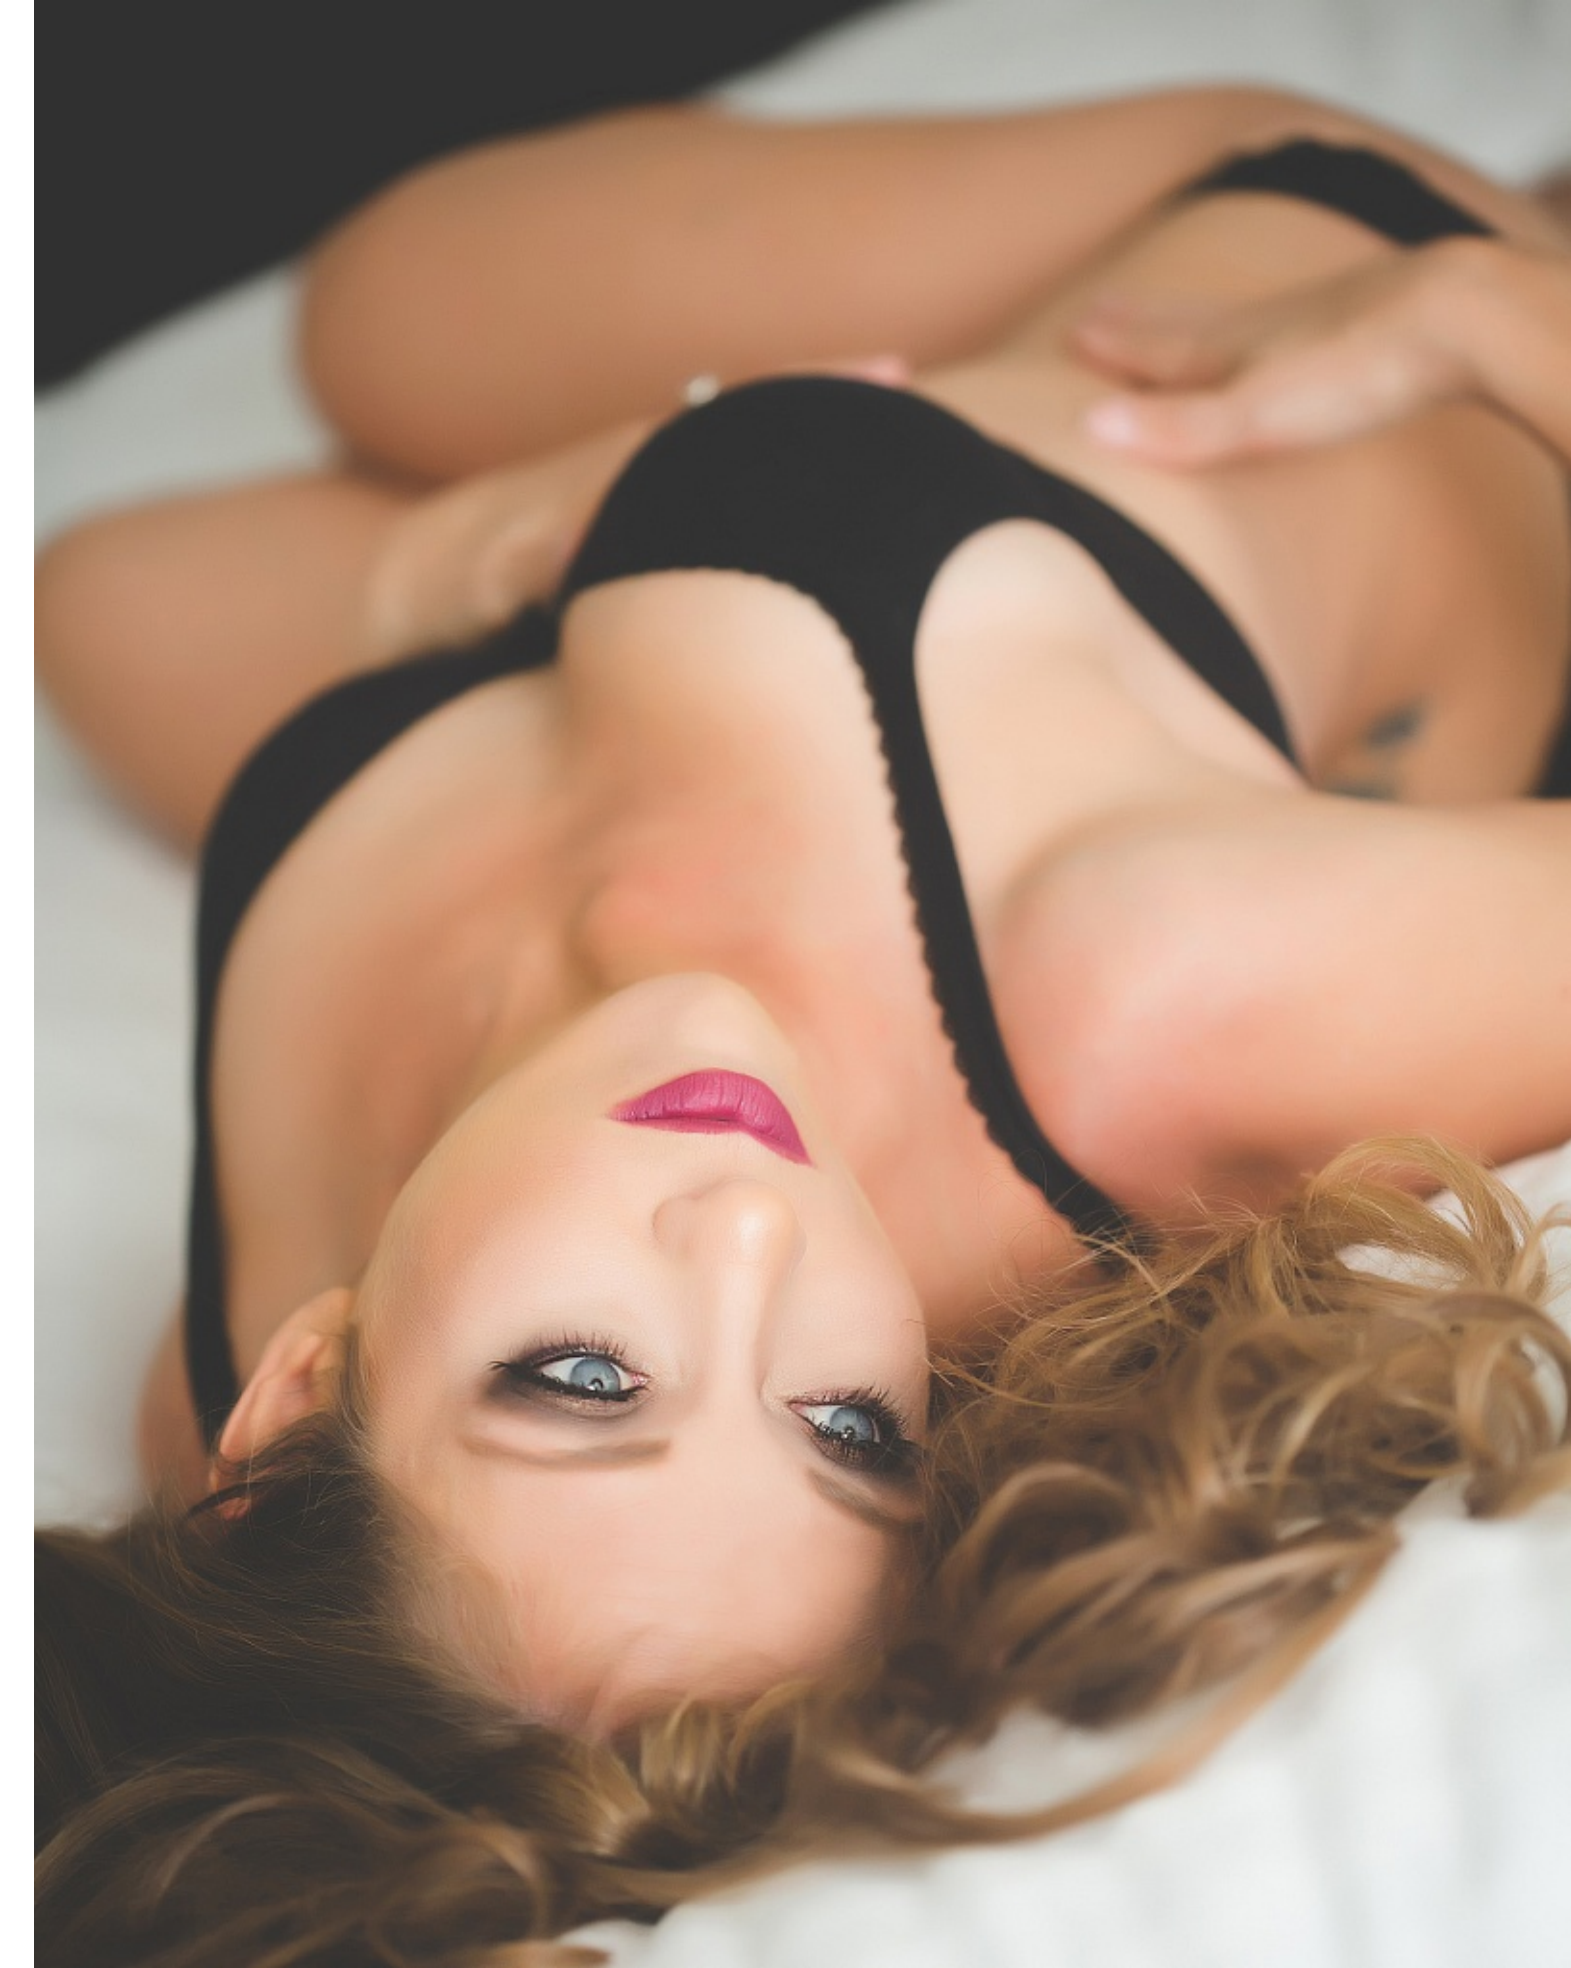

After the ceremony, we do all the family photos, wedding party pictures, then all of the couple pictures. I really try to get you two alone so you can be in your moment, and I can capture that.

The last part of the day is the reception. We don't usually leave until you leave. So that means no rushing to do all of the reception formalities or having to fake an exit for your photographers.

Boudoir Sessions

He already has the woman of his dreams, what more could he want? Boudoir sessions are the best wedding gift for your husband-to-be. I know, I know...you don't know if you can do it. Trust me , every girl that has done this session contemplated the same thing. But I can assure you, you will be glad you did it. They are a great way to boost self-confidence (you'll see!) and your husband will cherish this book forever! If your wedding package already comes with an extra session feel free to use it for one of these shoots. If not, you can add it on or get a session a la carte! The boudoir session gives you shooting time, flawless editing, professional hair and makeup, and a 20-page photobook.

Tonya is a truly gifted photographer...Her ability to capture 'the perfect moment' again and again is why we chose her as the photographer for our engagement photos and wedding day photos.

If you're looking for someone who can capture natural (un-posed looking) photos, then you should contact Tonya...she's also fun to work with. She arrives with a cheerful presence, and she takes her time working with her clients to get great photos...

One piece of advice I received over and over...was: "don't under-invest in the photography...you'll never regret having beautiful photos that capture the joy and the beauty of your special day!" I repeat that advice to anyone who is reading this now. Tonya's service is worth every penny! And she's an awful lot of fun to work with too!

Chris and Brian

Words cannot express how I feel about Tonya! Everyone who interacted with her fell just as much in love with her as my Husband and I did. Her attention to detail and desire to provide the Bride and Groom with the best and most memorable photographs of their wedding is unsurpassed. I knew the quality of her work before my wedding day, but her ability to capture the true essence of us, family, and friends is more than I could have expected. I feel as though my wedding day is alive as I look through the photos. ...Tonya never ceases to amaze me and she has the biggest, genuine, heart!

Sari and Mark

Although the photos speak for themselves, I don't know what I would have done without Tonya on my wedding day...I don't think anyone was prepared for what was actually in store, an outdoor wedding in a Jacksonville downpour. Tonya was there from the minute I arrived to the second I left and was my rock for the day. Minutes before the ceremony started;...while contemplating the 'right' decision (move indoors or stay outside), and on the verge of waterworks, Tonya's professional opinion and friendly demeanor talked me off the edge. With a smile on her face and camera in hand, I married my best friend outside in the rain. She was focused, flexible and her talent speaks for itself. Considering all of the rain, wet guests, and emotions our photos are PERFECT! Tonya captured every little detail and there isn't one I wouldn't consider displaying in my home. Words can not express the gratitude I have for Tonya and team, THANK YOU!
