

Hi there! My name is Sydney and I am the owner, designer, and creator behind SydMakes, a Georgia-based lettering service. I work closely with each of my brides and clients to create beautiful and personalized decor that is customized for their wedding or event. My ultimate goal is to understand what you are looking for and combine it with my creativity and lettering style to come up with a unique product you will love having displayed on your special day. Services include custom wedding welcome signs, table numbers, menu signs, seating charts, guest book alternatives, place cards, and more! I offer worldwide shipping as well as in-person pickup for locals. I absolutely love adding my lettering to just about any surface I can get my hands on, so feel free to reach out with your specific needs, and let's see what we can create!

WEDDING SIGNS

All of my signs and decor are made by hand and feature my signature handwriting. I welcome custom requests and strive to create something unique for your wedding.
