

planning tips.

Dear Bride to be,

Congratulations! It is an honor to be a part of your new beginning.

We take that privilege seriously, and want to provide you the best possible experience in planning your flowers.

As you look forward to our time together we ask that you do a few things to prepare.

your colors. Please bring a swatch of the bridesmaid dresses with you. This is the catalyst for the palette we chose to create your signature look.

your style. A picture really is worth a thousand words! Bring a few pictures that caught your eye from Pinterest. This helps us get a feel for your personal style so that we can create the bouquets of your dreams!

dollars and sense. Our hope is that you set a realistic plan for your flowers. Setting a budget before we meet will help you feel confident and prepared at your consultation. We will work with you to stay on track and create your unforgettable celebration!

We can't wait to meet you!

Sara @ Jodi

flower checklist.

due to the custom nature of each wedding we have an required minimum purchase of $1200.

the party.

- bridal bouquet $145-$200
- bridesmaid bouquets $55-$85
- junior bridesmaid $35-$50
- flower girl $15-$50
- floral crowns/hair flowers $20&up
- toss bouquet $40
- corsages $25-$45
- boutonnieres $15-$18

the reception.

- cake flowers/dessert table $15&up
- head table decor
- guest table center pieces $25-$125
- escort table decor $30&up
- high top/cocktail table decor $10&up the ceremony.

- aisle runner $55
- aisle decor $15-$50
- unity candles and flowers $50&up
- in memory of $30&up
- ceremony pieces $150-$600
- lobby decor $30&up
- petals to toss $50&up