Welcome Friends

Hello newlyweds to be, I would like to first congratulate you and thank you for considering us to help capture your special day. I know how monumental this day is and what it means to you. This is why we strive to do all we can to make sure we capture all the moments you will enjoy for a lifetime.

My fiancé and I shoot together as a team so we can capture as much of your day from start to finish. We like to meet with the couples ahead of time so we can become acquainted and discuss your vision for your wedding day. We shoot a very natural style of photography, which allows us to hold that essence of the day in each photograph. Along with the posed shots you often see, we strive to capture those candid moments we all love and cherish.

When working with The Pitchford Photography, we want you to be very comfortable and in your element throughout your day. We will always be within earshot so we don't miss a moment. Please feel free to take a look at the wedding photography packages that we offer that are detailed on the next page. We aim to provide a comprehensive and custom package that fits your needs for your wedding day and the special moments leading up to it! The day is approaching rapidly and we can't wait to work with you!
