2023 weddings & elopements investment guide

This moment is the most special moment of your life so far, and you want to hold on tight to it, capture in time to look back and pass along generations. You want to rescue back all of what you were feeling during the most beautiful day of your life, the day you say "I do" to your best friend. And that's where I step in!

I love people's authenticity and their unique way of seeing life and showing themselves, and would be thrilled to capture that specially for you! I believe the love for our world, for life, and between people is such a precious feeling, and it's what keep us moving everyday. Moments like your wedding day deserve to be cherished and looked back on years from now.

The most important day of your life should be done exactly how YOU TWO want it, not how the other 200 guests in a traditional wedding think it should be. If you'd like an elopement in a breathtaking location, do it! If your vibe is a cute backyard wedding for the closest to your heart to appreciate and celebrate your love, go for it! The important thing is have your day how you want to remember it, and you can count me in to help make your vision come to life!

ABOUT ME

Hey there!! My name is Amandha, I'm 24 years old and a professional third wheel - I mean, photographer - based in Austin, TX, but relocating to Denver, CO this upcoming summer!! (and I'm SO EXCITED!)

When I'm not behind the lens you can find me somewhere out there traveling, exploring around, having a Starbucks, hanging out with my favorite people, smushing my puppy, doing any outdoorsy things I can find, or binging a tv show eating dulce de leche ice cream. My biggest mission as your professional third wheel with a camera is make you comfortable enough to come out of your shell and have the best time of your life with your love.

My passion for traveling and creating memories brought me all the way from Brazil to the United States, where I've been living for the past four (and a half) years. Since then I've already lived on both coasts of the country before coming to the Southwest, where I've made my home since April 2021, and live with my husband and our dog, Benny.

Creating the most wonderful moments and memories for myself is what made me realize... that's what I want in life! I want to be the one right there, capturing all of YOUR special moments. Because I know how amazing it feels to look back at them a few months, or years from that day, and remember all of what was going on in your life back then, and how good it felt having those pictures taken. I want all those imperfectly perfect moments, that you would only have in your memories - because hey, memories fade away, photographs don't.

KYLE + MICKEY

"My fiancée and I had never had professional photos taken of us, so we were pretty nervous about taking our engagement photos. But when Amandha proposed the idea of a coffee shop date for a shoot, we decided to give it a shot, and we couldn't possibly be happier with how everything turned out. From the start she made us comfortable by asking questions about our love story, and we think she captured our laugh-filled love perfectly at a beautiful location here in Austin. You could tell that she's in the business of capturing love in a moment, and her genuine interest in our story was felt through every step of the way. We are so thankful to Amandha for walking us through the process and giving us some beautiful photos that we'll cherish forever."

FULL SIZE WEDDINGS

I grew up in a biiiig family (my mom is one of ten!!) and as a Latina, I know very well that sometimes we're just that close with all the 150 people in our family tree!! So, I totally get it the wish and need to have a bigger wedding, and I honestly love to see all the grandmas rockin' on the dance floor, the aunties a little tipsy but just oh so happy to be there with you, the kids breakdancing and running around and the grandpa giving the sweetest speech that makes everyone cry. The point is, it all hits so close to home, that I couldn't be happier in being considered to be part of the crew and document your big day with your big family - blood or heart! So these packages are perfect if you're planning your fairytale dream wedding with more than 30 guests.

THE COMPLIMENTARY SESSIONS

As you noticed, some of my packages have included an engagement or bridal session. I offer those for two reasons: I think you should have the experience to meet me for some photos before your big day so you can be even more comfortable with me on your wedding day + I believe you should have some amazing photos with a more casual look before the "I do" day, they can be used for invitations and websites and are an amazing way to connect with your better half and soak in the fact that YOU ARE ENGAGED!! But I also understand that sometimes you either already had those done before coming to me, or one of you don't really love photos that much, and that's why I also offer the bridal session that can be solo. After all, as always, this whole process is about you and your love!

this is how it works

After deciding you'll work with me and making it official, we'll meet for a coffee, or drinks, or walk on the park, or a video call - whatever you prefer - and decide on a date, location, vibe and everything in between for the complimentary session. All sessions include as well an outfit guidance, and the download + print release.

2.

At the day of, our session will be up to 35 or 60 minutes long, unless discussed otherwise and take place in a previous discussed location of your choice*

3.

Your photos are professionally edited and delivered digitally through a private online gallery, up to 6 weeks after the photoshoot.

4.

Your gallery will have included at least 15 photos and you can upgrade to include more (or all) photos after the session.

EXTRAS AND

add ons

EXTRA SHOOTING TIME

$410 per hour

For when 6 hours seems to little and 8 hours seems too much! (Or something like that).

I understand how some packages are just to square for your unique wedding day, so I offer extra hours photographing your day to make sure your needs are match perfectly!

SECOND SHOOTER

$75 per hour

Although I'd love to be in all places getting all the angles at all times, we know that's just humanly impossible. So, if your wedding is a little too big or if you'd just like to have more photos of different angles from your big day, I'm more than happy to take a fellow photographer of my trust to second shoot with me and guarantee you'll have all the important angles and moments covered in full!

EXTRA EDITING TIME

$50 per hour

I do my very best to get those retouched photos to you as perfect as they can be. But making all the fly away hairs or people in the background disappear takes much more time and effort. But if that's what you want, I got you! I'm happy to spend extra time making your favorite images absolutely perfect.

EXTRAS AND ADD ONS

for your complimentary session

+ EXTRA DIGITAL DOWNLOADS

$15 per photo

Only 15 photos isn't enough to keep your memories safe? I get it! You can add as many more photos as you want to your gallery or have it all to yourself.

PS. It might be better to get a bundle!

$60 per 5 extra photos

$110 per 10 extra photos

+ EXTRA SESSION TIME

$190 per 30 minutes

You want the full engagement session experience and have a full hour for your session? Or are we going on a hike that will take definitely more than 30 minutes to get at the perfect spot, take a good amount of photos and come back? I'm happy to spend more time doing what I love to make sure you'll have all the memories of that day captured!

+ FULL GALLERY

$250

For when every single photo is your favorite photo and you don't want to have to drive yourself crazy choosing your top 15. Have 'em all and have more to look back to fuel those sentimental afternoons. A full gallery will be between 40 - 80 photos.

TRAVEL

Whether it's hopping on a plane to come and meet you at the base of your favorite mountain, or jumping in a car to explore somewhere that plays a crucial part of your life story, I LOVE a new adventure. If you'd like to scheme an adventure closer to me, I'll take the trip for free within 30 miles away from home*. If we're going a little further afield, here are my rates:

- Up to 100 miles away driving: $1/mile travel fee past 30 miles.
- Between 100 - 200 miles away driving: $75/hour travel fee.

If it's further than 200 miles away, this is what you can expect to be added on - to be discussed on a case to case basis:

- Lodging (Cost of AirBnb or basic hotel room)
- Food ($60/day)
- Flights (cost of economy flight)
- Rental car (rental car fee and gas)

HOWEVER, there are some exception to those rates. Have I said I LOVE a new adventure? I really do. So, if your dream location is on my bucket list - aka, most of the National Parks and cool towns - I'm more than happy to do a discounted travel fee or even have zero. It all depends where we're going. Let's chat about it!

FAQS

How many images will we receive?

For the All Inclusive Complimentary Session you'll receive all your best images (40-80) in full resolution! For the Limited Session you'll get 15 images of your choice and you can upgrade to get as many as you'd like up to 40-80 photos if you choose full gallery. For weddings, I'll give you all the best shots from your perfect day - around 80 photos per hour.

Do you travel for photoshoots?

Yes! I love to travel and love new adventures, please refer back to the page "Travels" in this guide.

What's in your camera bag?

I shoot mostly with my Sony a7iii + 35mm lens. I also always carry a zoom 70-180mm lens and a speedlite flash for when it's needed. Aside from a reflector, prisms for fun photos effects, a cream blanket and a pop up tent to make outfit changes easier during sessions!

FAQS

How long have you been a photographer?

I first started to photograph during high school when I was only 15 y.o, but it was about 2 years ago that I decided to turn my passion into a business. Since May 2022 I've been all in and have doing this full time!

Can we meet you before booking?

Absolutely! I like to at least do a call consultation with you to make sure we're the perfect fit, and I would love to turn that call into a Starbucks meeting - coffee on me!

What should we wear for photos?

I'll send you an outfit guide prior the session to help you out with that, but my biggest piece of advice is wearing something that makes you happy and comfortable. Also, neutral colors for the win!

FAQS

What if we need to raincheck or cancel?

I'll reschedule a photoshoot in case of rain if I think it's necessary and no fees will be charged. If you need to cancel for any reason, you have up to 7 days before our original date to cancel your session but the non-refundable deposit (50% of the session) will be kept and it can be applied to another session, if you'd like to reschedule it. If you cancel with less than a week, unfortunately you'll be asked to pay a sitting fee of $50. Exceptions for emergency applies.

Do you give us all of the RAW files?

No, unfortunately I can't give the RAW files as they do not reflect my final work.

What happens now?

Let's set up a call to talk through your ideas and make sure we're the perfect fit! As soon as you let me know you decided to work with me, I'll send you a link with the next steps to make it official. That includes a non-refundable 25% of your wedding package, to lock the date only for you.

"Where to start.... let's start with AMAZING! First thing I want to say is my fiancé who hates photos actually enjoyed this shoot with Amanda, and walked away saying how fun it was; that says a lot!!! But what really stood Amanda out to me in a sea of engagement/ wedding photographers was her personable, communicative style. She was the only photographer to respond answering my initial inquiry questions out of 15-20 businesses. The rest sent a 'copy & paste response', which told me they didn't take the time to read it. Amanda made me feel that she was really taking the time to make sure we got everything and more out of our shoot experience, (arriving early to our photoshoot site to get ideas, actually taking photos from my Pinterest inspo board!!!, reading through my fiancé & I's wants out of the photoshoot questionnaire and more). Overall, she has truly been a breath of fresh air during our wedding planning months."

Chelsea + Alex

"Working with Amanda was truly a pleasure, not only because she is very outspoken and positive, but also for her being open and willing to follow our ideas, whether they were conservative or crazy. She also kept us on track with timeline and details, she is very good about that!!! But the biggest treasure, was definitely when we saw the pictures: the colors, ideas and moments that she captured were amazing! For all you new couples looking for an excellent photographer, do not hesitate to contact her, you won't be disappointed!"

Kalinka + David

"Amandha did such an amazing job on our wedding photos. Communication on everything she needed was prompt, she asked amazing questions to fill in things that we weren't even sure about, and execution on day-of couldn't have been more stellar. Highly, highly recommend her!"

Joel + Mako

"Amandha photographed our engagement beautifully!!! She captured every special moment from the proposal, to celebrating with friends and family, to an intimate photoshoot with just me and my fiancé. They are photos we will cherish forever."
