A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Lori Parrish".

Award Winning International Harpist

meet tori

A harpist for over two decades, Tori loves sharing the beautiful sounds and textures of her instrument with her community. She combines her classical training with her love of composing to create unique harp stylings for the contemporary couple. Tori takes pride in tailoring her music for each individual couple and performing unique pieces that speak to them on their special day.

Tori's calming energy and musical expertise will make choosing your ceremony and reception music a breeze! She and her harp will be your soothing oasis through any wedding chaos.

"Amazing. Attentive. Detailed. Kind. Beautiful. The pandemic created a lot of uncertainty and so many changes to the dates how we wanted to set up our day. Tori was so patient and helped me create ideas that really put the perfect touches to our ceremony. Everyone was blown away that we had such a talented and amazingly beautiful soul with a tremendous gift. I am so, so thankful!"

Asa / Married October 31, 2021

services

CEREMONY

With a hybrid approach combining classical and contemporary harp performance techniques, I curate musical stylings that tell your unique love story. The harp will add the beautiful finishing touch to your special day. After all, they don't call it the instrument of angels for nothing.

CELEBRATION

Serenade your guests with live harp music during your engagement dinner, bridal shower, or reception! My offerings provide the perfect touch of elegance throughout your engagement journey all the way from the first "Yes!" to "I do!"

the process

1. Review this packet.

2. Schedule introductory phone call.

3. Schedule planning meeting.

4. Receive estimate.

5. Communicate any changes.

6. Final review and payment.

7. Enjoy your music experience!

A photograph of a white and brown calico cat sitting on a dark wooden piano. The cat is looking upwards towards a large, ornate harp. The harp has a curved neck and many tuning pegs. In the background, there are some plants and a person's head visible, though slightly blurred.

FAQ

How many years of experience do you have?

Tori has been performing all over the world since 2010 and performed at her first wedding in 2012! Some of my favorite performances include concerts at St. Peter's Cathedral in Vienna, Austria and Melk Abbey in Melk, Austria.

Do you only do weddings?

No! I perform for all types of events including luncheons, teas, engagement celebrations, rehearsals, receptions and more. Let me know if you have a special event in mind!

Can we listen to more of your music?

Absolutely. Send me a message and I'll get you a variety of samples – or go ahead and schedule our planning call to hear some samples live!

How many weddings do you perform each year?

Tori accepts about 15–20 weddings each year.

Do you accept credit cards?

Yes, I do! Earn those miles and put them towards your honeymoon!

Let's make all your music dreams come true.

Tarri Parish