Benefits:

All options guide the couple in preparing a wedding ceremony script that is meaningful and tailored to their relationship. However, the benefit to the couple is that their satisfaction and comfort with the ceremony seem to increase as the number of meetings increases. Also, each additional meeting provides an opportunity for the couple to receive more guidance and learn techniques to ensure that they are relaxed and present during the ceremony.

Notes:

Ideally, meetings are held in person; however, meetings can be conducted via Skype or Zoom.
