Kristy is absolutely amazing! She is very professional she lives pretty far from me but she still went out of her way to meet up with me when ever I wanted and discuss my upcoming wedding. Photography was the number one most important part to me in my wedding and I wanted to make sure everything was perfect so I was very picky and gave her samples of The style of photography that I wanted she knew exactly what I was looking for and our personalities and styles clicked immediately! The day Of she was very professional she brought her assistant and did a great job capturing all of the moments that I wanted! It's been only 4 days since my wedding and I've already got well over 100 edited photos from her that have come out gorgeous! She clearly works on these photos day and night and she sends bunches of them as she finishes so we had something to look at immediately. Kristy is very budget friendly and is willing to work with you she gave me a great deal and because I had already gotten my engagement shoots done she agreed to add extras to our package. I plan to use Kristy in the future for more family photos and am thrilled that I can finally end my hunt for a great photographer!

From the second I met Kristy we clicked! Her energy is contagious! The coldest day of the entire winter I chose to do my engagement session outside, Kristy not only arrives early, has a present for my fiancé and I (a personalized photo prop). Kristy made the whole experience truly fun for us. Not to mention I have been compliments on our pictures ever since!! Affordable packages with true quality pictures and experience. Can't wait to see how the wedding photos come out!

Kristy was our photographer for our October 2015 wedding (& engagement photos) and we could not be happier with her work and professionalism. From our initial sit down meeting, to our beautiful garden engagement shoot that put us at ease and then capturing the essence of our wedding day to a tee - working with Kristy was a pleasure. She was receptive and accommodating to all of our wishes, captured all our must haves and added so much value to our wedding day pictures with her vision and perfectionism. We have so many beautiful quality photos from our wedding and it seems as if every moment was captured in time just as it was. Our photos are priceless. Kristy is an affordable quality photographer who you can rely upon to deliver all you wish and more for your wedding photos - highly recommend!

"We took Kristy to a destination wedding in Cancun. She went above and beyond to scope out the resort for the best photo opps and made sure to take test shots to ensure the backgrounds were exactly what I was looking for; to capture the "perfect beach wedding."
