

“Steve and his company captured our special day in an amazing video. Even a year later, watching his production is almost as good as being there. His attention to detail and great editing accurately portrayed the emotions, thoughts and feelings our wedding perfectly. Thank you!”

— Walter & Christina

You’re carefully choosing the flowers, the meals, the venue, the readings and the vows for the biggest party of your life. Why wouldn’t you invest in your memories of all that?

Not Your Mother’s Wedding Video

Sonnet Wedding Films creates short cinematic wedding films people want to watch—no cringeworthy moments or over-the-top corny, posed stuff...just stunning images and compelling storytelling.

We seek out the angles that capture the essence of your wedding day. It’s not just any wedding to you, and it’s not just any wedding to us. Your stories, your personalities, and your relationship are unique, and capturing that is our focus.

Rather than putting you through a lot of artificial staged shots, we’ll work quietly to capture events as they unfold, so that your film is a reflection of the day as it happened. In fact, couples often tell us they forgot we were there after the first few minutes, and are surprised by the details and moments we captured.

Cinematography & Attention to Detail

How will you remember your wedding day? Photos are essential, but they tell only part of the story. Let Sonnet Wedding Films work with you to share the story of your special day with high-quality cinematography, done with skill and professionalism. You deserve a wedding film as unique as your day. Contact us today, and enjoy your celebration of love for years to come.
