

SIOUSCA

A PHILADELPHIA BASED WEDDING, PORTRAIT AND LANDSCAPE PHOTOGRAPHER

ABOUT ME

I believe that everything in life is about finding balance.

I think photos should be printed, held and hung on walls.

I'm a quality over quantity kinda guy.

I have a deep love of nature and try to show that in my work.

I'm very social but also greatly appreciate time to myself as well.

I try to be as eco-conscious as possible in my daily life.

I think everyone should go on a road trip without destination or agenda at least once in their life.

I don't only shoot weddings and I almost always have a camera with me wherever I go.

I shoot with digital and film cameras. I think each format has its place in photography and offers something unique and different.

My wife's name is Shauna and we have a three year old son named Rider and a seven year old newfoundland, Stella.

ABOUT YOU

You are creative, artistic, spontaneous and love to travel.

You are inquisitive and like to be well informed.

You connect with animals and likely have pets.

You are likely a lover of the arts.

You are a logical and decisive person who knows what they want in life.

You have a strong sense of personal style.

You are open to adventure and are not afraid to get a little dirty.

You love to be outdoors, either alone, or in good company.

You are a risk taker, a trendsetter...and maybe even a thrill-seeker.

You appreciate the occasional good beer, wine or whiskey.

You know you need a photographer who you can connect with.

...and that is where I come in.

SOME RAVES FROM PAST CLIENTS

Jen and Justin

While we loved our wedding venue for many reasons, there were limited suitable locations for us to shoot our bride and groom portraits at. Dave's eye was impeccable at picking out scenes/areas that we would have never thought to use. He really got creative and provided us with beautiful imagery despite working within what we know were a difficult set of limitations. This was one of our biggest concerns going into the wedding and Dave delivered in ways that we could never have imagined.

Allison and Adam

My husband generally does not like to have his photo taken and I was worried going into the wedding that he wouldn't be able to relax and act naturally. Dave did an incredible job putting both of us at ease and making the entire photo experience for us and our families enjoyable and painless. It was clear that he works hard at building a relationship with his clients so that by the time you are in front of his camera you feel like you are working with one of your closest friends, which was incredibly helpful for us.

Bridget and Griffin

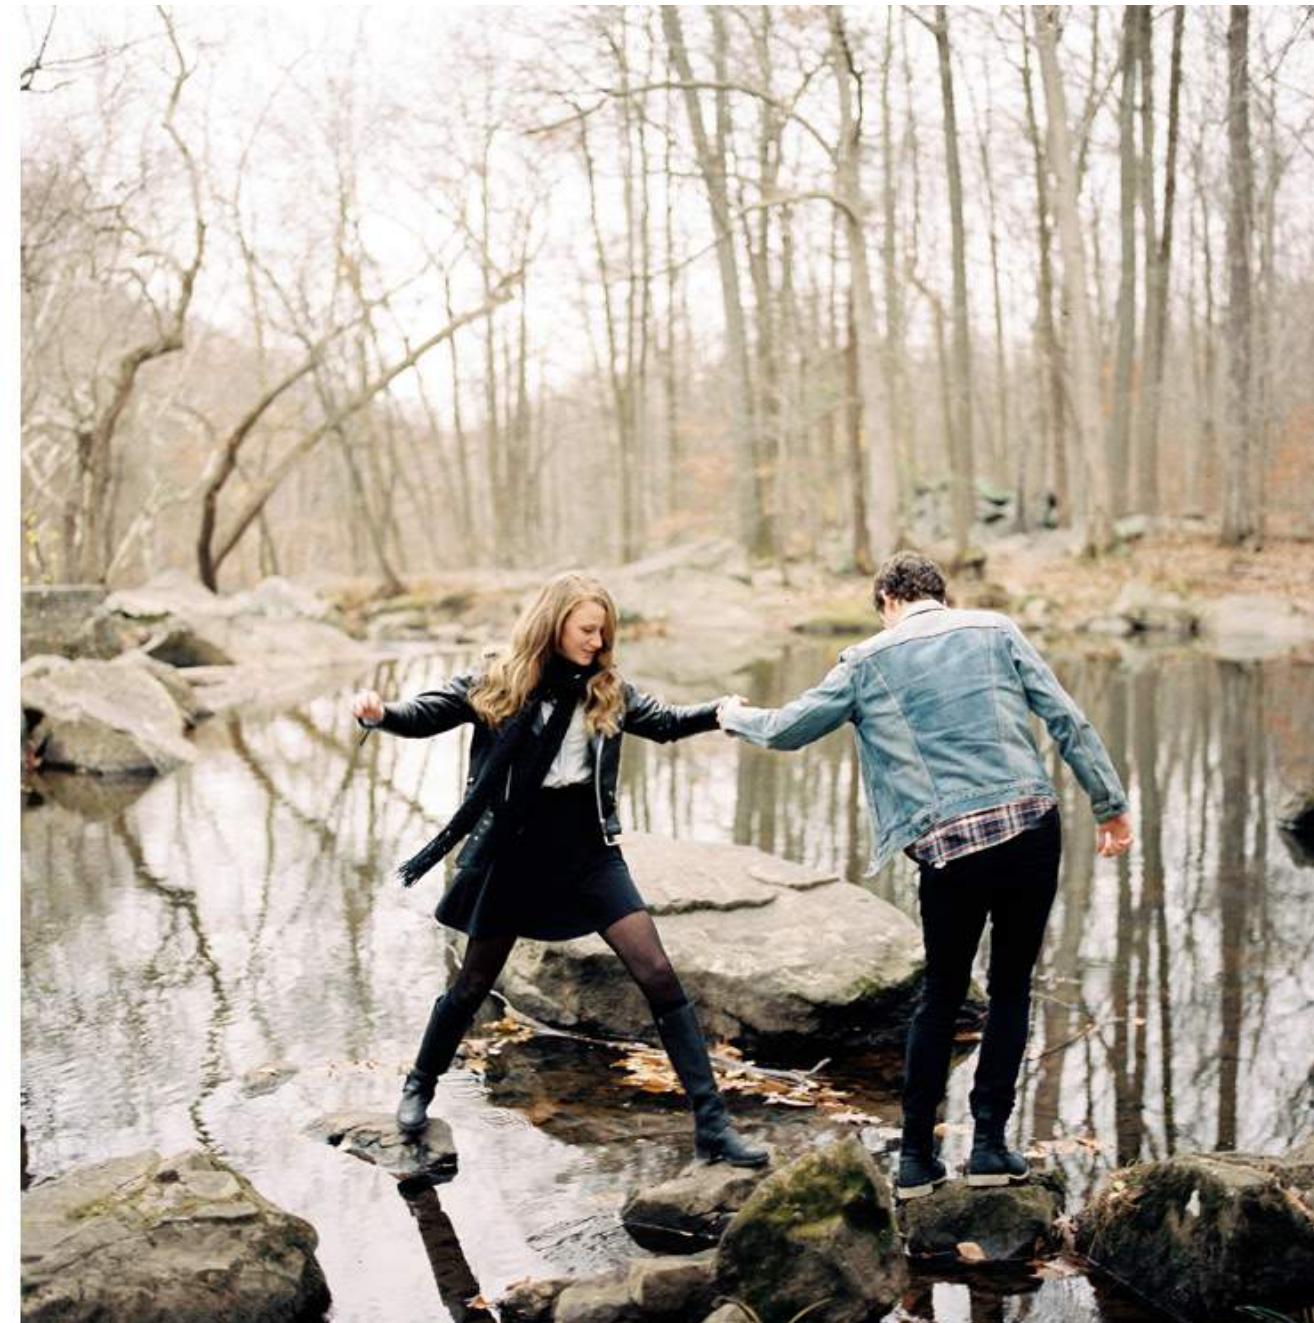

When my parents decided to sell the home that my two sisters and I grew up in, I knew that I needed to have my wedding there as a final hurrah. Dave blew us away by being able to not only document our wedding day in a beautiful manner but he also managed to capture all the emotions that were flowing through my family in bidding farewell to the home that we loved so much. Hiring Dave to photograph our day was absolutely one of the best decisions that we made.

Vince and Anastasia

When our ceremony officiant didn't show up to the wedding, we briefly went into panic mode. Thankfully, Dave was there by our side and helped to keep us calm while we worked through the situation and found someone at the venue who was able to officiate for us. Aside from the wonderful photographs and album that Dave provided to us, his laid back personality and relaxed attitude were crucial in keeping us calm when things went a little sideways. Trust that you are hiring a photographer with plenty of experience in handling all kinds of unexpected wedding surprises.
