It was so easy to work with you, we truly did feel welcome by you, and it was a pleasure speaking with you every time. You really did help facilitate many things to help create an event that is so important to us, so we thank you so much. My fiancé (now husband) and I were looking for a unique wedding venue and we were fortunate enough to find it! The crush floor was just what we were looking for! It was modern and minimalist but had all the charm and flair of a winery. Everyone was amazed by the views of SF! The people there were very easy to work with and responsive and catered to our every need."

- Lydia Han

This is a unique and fun place to have a reception, especially if you are looking for something different and especially if you need a comfortable indoor space that you can decorate with as much or as little as you want. We received tons of compliments from our guests about this venue ranging from "spectacular" to "seriously the coolest venue ever." This building is an old airplane hangar turned into a winery and provides a beautiful space for an event - with wine barrels everywhere and the rustic vibe of an old building - it's very unusual and makes for a very memorable occasion. The wine was great and our close friend who was the caterer said the staff at the Winery SF was very easy to work with and extremely helpful. Our wedding coordinator and I would have to agree that the staff went the extra mile to make sure this wedding was everything we had hoped for. If you are looking for something unusual with great wine, a helpful staff, a cool vibe and a perfect San Francisco location - no parking problems, easy to find - this is it.
