What You Can Expect

Here's what you can expect and need to do in preparation for...

Pre-Wedding

In preparation for your big day I will meet with the both the bride and groom to ensure that prior I am able to capture all of the epic moments during your big day. (IE: First look, cake cutting, who you want me to capture as the bride first begins to walk down the aisle etc.)

Be Prepared!

You have been preparing for this day for a while now. Let me take over. I will capture your big day from the beginning with photographs of the bride and groom getting ready to the time you say I do to the cutting of the cake and the first dance.

Be Flexible and Patient!

Sometimes getting the perfect shot depends on uncontrollable conditions like weather, or simply requires luck and perfect timing. I'm a professional who knows how to achieve the best results based on these elements, but it can still be a process that requires patience on both sides of the camera. Let's relax and enjoy the process!
