

I find it an honor and a blessing to work together with you on your Wedding Day. My goal is to create original imagery that provides you with memories of this special event, the friends and family whom celebrated with you, the details, the laughs, the expressions, the surprises and the tears of joy.

I approach your Wedding Day in a candid fashion to capture moment, the emotion and the fun. My clients love my ability to pull together group shots in a fun, not so "stiff" fashion. Many have commented as to how comfortable I make them feel while having their Engagement photos or Wedding Day portraits taken. I regard each Wedding assignment I approach in all sincerity as these will be your treasured memories, forever.
