About

EDOO
PHOTOGRAPHY

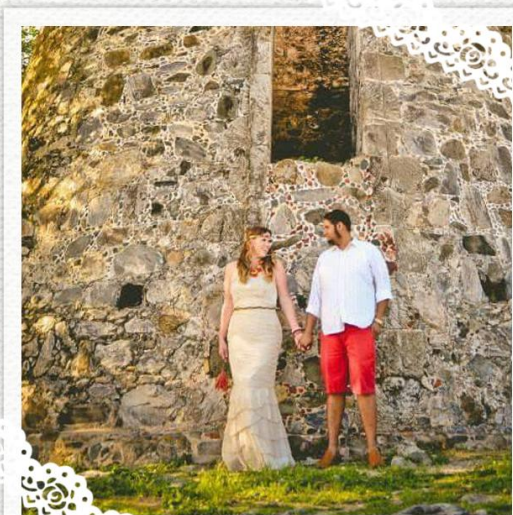

“Only once in your life, I truly believe,
you find someone who can completely turn your world around.”

– Bob Marley

Weddings truly are a celebration of life and love. I consider myself privileged to be chosen to be behind the lens during my clients beautiful and special day! If you are yourself planning a wedding consider yourself blessed. You are the few that get to feel the complete love that we were meant to experience. Love is a beautiful thing that can sweep you like a river, take your breath away, and give you the happiness and understanding that cannot be replicated. Each story is different. Each is Beautiful. You have found that one person that you cannot live without. You have found the peanut butter to your jelly, the bacon to your eggs, your better half, and that person who brings out the best in you and that person you will be joining on the adventure of life. You are about to start your very own Love Story. Let us illustrate the very first chapters of your new lives together.

Your Photographer

My journey behind the lens started eight years ago after I met my better half and we quickly decided we couldn't live without each other. After our beautiful wedding I realized how VERY important and precious the memories we experienced during our wedding day were and within months, Edoo Photography was born. I have been offering artistic Wedding Story telling ever since. I love what I do and feel blessed every day I pick up my camera.

Weddings are such amazing events, each one as interesting and beautiful as the unique couples who plan them. The part of this job I love most is getting to watch your love-story unfold on the most special day of your life. God gave us the desire for a companion to walk through this adventure that is life. Being able to photograph couples as they make this commitment to one another is a serious privilege I handle each one with extra special care.

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about me.
I cannot wait to hear all about your Love Story and paint it with the unique colors that are your lives as they merge together

A romantic scene at sunset. A couple is embracing in the lower right corner, with the woman in a white lace dress and the man in a white shirt. The sky is a gradient of orange, pink, and blue. At the top of the image, there is an inverted silhouette of a person in a purple jacket, appearing to be upside down. A decorative white lace border separates the two text sections.

What to Expect

You should expect that the images I create reflect both you as a couple and the events and emotions of your wedding. The best way to do this is to get to know you as a couple before your big day. Whether that be at an Engagement photo session or a informal meet up in person or on the phone, it gives a chance to feel comfortable together and go through your wishes, expectations and time line for the day.

My style of photography will capture the unique moments of your day so beautifully that in years to come you can look through your wedding day album and your memories will come alive. I aim that every photo evokes powerful emotion and every photo tells it's unique part of your love story.

We allow you the freedom to choose the amount of coverage you need for your day.

GETTING READY

Getting ready for the wedding day is so exciting. We love to be there for all of the fun. So many emotions, so much fun, conversations, nerves, love and gorgeous photo opportunities. We personally love being there to capture all of these sweet moments. Whether we are there from when the first makeup brush is pulled out or arrive when you slip that last shoe on and are whisked away to walk down the aisle. We love to give you the coverage you envision for your love story

THE FIRST LOOK

The first look is a perfect opportunity to privately capture the first moment the groom gets to finally see the bride in her beautiful gown. I love this moment, but it's not for everyone. If you need more information to make your personal choice we can help you make the decision that works best for your special day.

THE PORTRAITS

I love to create beautiful portraits that you will want to have in your house as artwork! We use the time either before or after your ceremony to photograph your family, then wedding party, then lastly I spend some time taking some memorable portraits of the two of you. The most preferable time to take these photos, if possible is around sunset. The lighting is most romantic!

We will have a discussion prior to your wedding on your shot list and what is most important to you so that we aren't taking portraits for very long. I like to be able to get you back to your reception and celebrating with your family and friends as quick as possible!

THE CEREMONY

I will be there to capture the grooms reaction along with the emotions of family and friends during the key moments of the service. For optimal coverage having two photographers there ensures coverage from every angle!

THE RECEPTION

This is our favorite time to photograph things exactly the way they happen. We will make sure to capture all of the important moments and emotions that unfold as you celebrate your union with your family and friends. Some couples choose to have us stay for the entire Reception. This is entirely up to you. If you are having a send off at the end of the night, it's great having us there to capture photos of that. But this decision will depend on the coverage you want. We love to be there for capturing all the fun that will take place.

We are all a little weird and life is a little weird,
and when we find someone whose weirdness
is compatible with ours, we join up with them and fall in mutual weirdness and call it love."

You call it madness

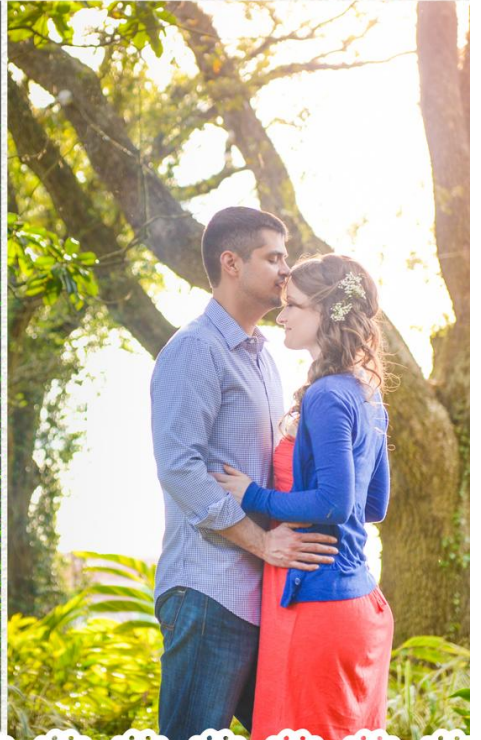

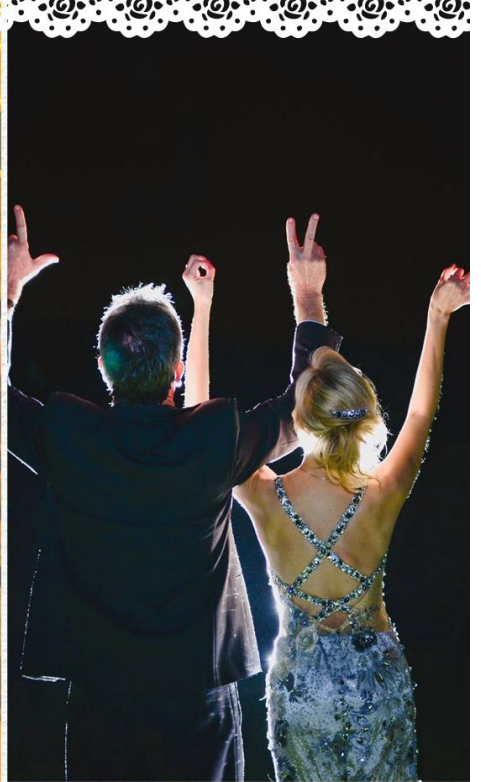

but I call it love

A photograph of a man and a woman in silhouette, standing in front of a fire truck at night. The fire truck's emergency lights are on, casting a warm, orange glow. The truck has a logo on the side that says "HOUSTON" and "FIRE RESCUE". The couple is looking at each other. The text "The most powerful weapon on earth is the human soul on fire" is overlaid on the image.
