

THE SATURNIA ROOM at Ristorante Piccolo

Historic Georgetown
1068 31st Street, NW | Washington, DC 20007

Dine in splendor, wrapped in the warmth of deep, rich cherry and hand-crafted silk wall coverings while you listen to the sound of water falling just as you would in the world-famous spas of Saturnia.

This elegant room is a perfect setting for any occasion, but especially for rehearsal and board dinners. Cocktail receptions become an opulent setting for networking or hosting a special occasion to be remembered. Whatever the reason, you and your guests will walk away with hopes to quickly return to Piccolo for yet another memorable event.
