Wedding Pricing 2024

Hello, it's Alexis! I can't wait to meet you!

Welcome!

I am stoked you are here, we are going to make magic together! Some of my most favorite days include my littles, my boo and our pup. We love being outdoors, exploring and playing games! I started photography 8 years ago mainly to document their lives but it has grown into so much more.

I'm passionate about making others happy and celebrating their love. I want to serve my clients as best as I can, I want to help them capture time in a photograph. I hope one day you look back on your images and remember exactly how you felt in that moment in your life and you truly cherish the time we spent together!

Let's celebrate your love!

Next steps...

- Let's chat!

I am here to help ease any and all stresses you have surrounding your big day. I will put together a proposal with invoice/contract of what you are wanting so you can see everything broken down.

- Booking your day!

To book and hold your date I require a 25% non-refundable retainer fee as well as a signed contract. Once you have looked over the proposal I have sent we can discuss any questions you have regarding it.

- Party planning!

After booking we will jump right into planning your engagement session! I can help with any other vendors you are looking to book and I will put together a timeline and shot list as we get closer to your big day!
